Pandemonium Reigned Supreme During the Evening and Red Fire Was In Profusion.

Last night was Republican night in East Liverpool, and there was no lack of enthusiasm, and a person not acquainted with the situation would have been firmly convinced that McKinley and Roosevelt were the only presidential candidates.

The small boys started the jollification early in the day and almost blew their lungs out on tin horns. When evening arrived the men joined in the sport and pandemonium reigned. Yellow ribbon was predominant, and long before the parade started the streets were packed with merry people eager to add their voices in the cheers for McKinley and Roosevelt.

When the Sewickley marching club, headed by a drum corps and brass band, arrived shortly after 7 o'clock and marched up Broadway to Republican headquarters they were greeted by vociferous cheering and the red fire was burned like paper. When they arrived at the headquarters they were served with luncheon and hot coffee. A short time later the St. Clair township delegation headed by the Clarkson brass band arrived and were given an enthusiastic welcome.

They carried a banner bearing the inscription "St. Clair is all O. K."

A long wait was had until the Salineville delegation arrived, but it was well worth waiting for, as when their special train rolled in it brought 300 enthusiastic McKinley men and a brass band.

No time was lost in forming the parade and Chief Marshal Surles and his aides worked like trojans and about 8:30 the parade moved out without a semblance of confusion in the following order:

Platoon of Police.
Haines' Band.
Mounted Staff.
Speakers in Carriages.
Sewickley Troop Band and Drum Corps.
Sewickley Republican Club.
Salineville Band.
Salineville McKinley Club.
Lime Kiln Club, East Liverpool.
Local Ward Delegates.
Irondale Band.
Irondale Delegations.
Manley's Band.
Rough Riders.
Clarkson Band.
Clarkson Rough Riders.
Local Rough Riders.
Floats.

The garbage wagon brought up the rear of the procession with the following very appropriate inscription: "Under Grover our garbage we ate, under Mac we have it to cremate."

The following route of procession was observed:

Down East Market to Sixth, down Sixth to Monroe, Monroe to Fifth, Fifth to Washington, Washington to Fourth, Fourth to Jackson, Jackson to Third, Third to Union, Union to Second, to foot of Second and counter-march, back Second to Broadway,

Broadway to Cook, Cook to Walnut, Walnut to Forest, Forest to Sixth, Sixth to Diamond, Diamond to Fourth, Fourth to Broadway and thence to wigwam.

As the parade went down Sixth street it was one mass of red fire, while on every hand sky rockets and Roman candles were shot off in profusion. On every street there was a profusion of red fire and it is seldom the East Liverpool people are permitted to witness a sight so beautiful.

A careful estimate places at least 2,000 men in line.

The decorations were very handsome and elaborate, but the office of Attorney G. Y. Travis and City Treasurer Herbert on Sixth street easily led. Their front was a profusion of bunting, flags and decorated paper, while pictures of McKinley were numerous. Right above their office in the same building the Belmont club had made elaborate decorations and had suspended on a pole a full dinner pail and an empty dinner pail. The Ohio Valley Gas office was beautifully decorated, while the residence of Colonel John N. Taylor was a mass of bunting and flags. The Phoenix club rooms were also covered with bunting and flags, while the residence of Attorney John M. McGarry presented one of the prettiest pictures of the evening.

When the parade reached his home red fire was burning from both corners of every window in the front of the house. C. A. Smith's office was decorated with flags and bunting and was one of the handsomest of the evening.

All along the line of procession the decorations were very handsome, while it is probable there never was as much red fire burned in one evening.

The parade reached the wigwam a few minutes before 10 o'clock, but the tent was packed when it got there.

The meeting at the wigwam was commenced almost immediately after the parade and was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

George H. Owen, chairman of the local committee, introduced Colonel Phillips, Meigs county, who sang a campaign song and the following vice presidents were called:

W. A. Thompson, George Smith, Captain W. F. Dawson, James Finley, R. J. Marshall, J. C. Allison, Samuel Beal, M. M. Huston, T. O. Timmons, Harry Gaston, Prof. Weaver, James Jemmisson, John Burlingame, T. B. Murphy, William Collock, E. H. Huntsman, John Job Dawson, Dr. W. R. Clark and Charles Dawson.

Colonel Hill was chosen chairman of the meeting and in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker of the evening, T. E. Murphy, of Johnstown, Pa., who spoke for over an hour.

To the Ex-Union Soldiers.

By W. L. CURRY, Manager of Soldiers' Home.

On the eve of a national election which involves not only the election of state officials, but members of congress on whom will rest the responsibility of enacting important laws and a president, it is well for every veteran, whatever ticket he may vote, to compare the record of the Republican and Democratic parties as to pension legislation and other matters in which every ex-union soldier is very much interested.

The Republican party has always been the friend of the soldier. It is responsible for the liberal pension laws which have been enacted in his behalf, and for the just and fair rulings which have characterized the application of those laws while the Republican party is in power. Nearly four billion dollars have been distributed to the ex-soldiers under the pension laws now on the statute books, millions of people have been protected from want, and hundreds of thousands of brave and loyal men have been shielded in their declining years from the absolute destitution, want and suffering which their enfeebled condition, by reason of service to the nation, would have brought, save for the generous legislation which the Republican party has enacted in their behalf.

The Republican party is responsible and makes no denial of its responsibility for the present pension system of the United States, there is but one way for such reform; that is by law. Can you expect any liberal pension legislation by the Democratic party with such a record as it has made in congress? Let us see! Here is the record, read and then reflect:

In 1878 a bill was passed by the lower house of congress repealing all limitations of time in which applications for arrears of pensions should be made. Upon this the vote stood: Democrats for the bill..... 48 Democrats against the bill..... 61 Republicans for the bill..... 116 Republicans against the bill..... None

Subsequently a bill increasing the pensions of widows from $8 to $12 was voted on with the following results:

Democrats for the bill..... 80 Democrats against the bill..... 66 Republicans for the bill..... 118 Republicans against the bill..... None The Amputation bill—Passed Aug. 4, 1886:

Democrats for the bill..... 75 Democrats against the bill..... 51 Republicans for the bill..... 91 Republicans against the bill..... None

The Widows' Arrears Bill—(Giving arrears of pension, from the death of their husbands, to widows entitled to pensions.) Passed the senate by the following vote:

Democrats for the bill..... 1 Democrats against the bill..... 20 Republicans for the bill..... 22 Republicans against the bill..... None

The Disability Pension bill—(Gives pension to all disabled soldiers and to dependent parents and children.) Passed June, 1890:

Democrats for the bill..... 28 Democrats against the bill..... 56 Republicans for the bill..... 117 Republicans against the bill..... None

Same bill in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 3 Democrats against the bill..... 18 Republicans for the bill..... 31 Republicans against the bill..... None

In the Forty-ninth congress a Dependent Pension bill was voted on in the senate with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 7 Democrats against the bill..... 14

Republicans for the bill..... 27

Republicans against the bill..... None

In the same congress a similar bill was voted upon in the house of representatives, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 66

Democrats against the bill..... 114

Republicans for the bill..... 76

Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was vetoed by President Cleveland. An effort was made in the lower house to pass the bill over the veto, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 37

Democrats against the bill..... 125

Republicans for the bill..... 138

Republicans against the bill..... None

Showing that 29 Democrats who had originally voted for the bill hastened to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the president's veto to vote against it, thus, testifying their real sentiments, while 20 others who had dodged the first vote came up promptly to the support of the veto.

The vote upon which the Dependent Pension Bill was finally passed by the Republican congress, of which Tom Reed was speaker, stood as follows in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 10

Democrats against the bill..... 12

Republicans for the bill..... 32

Republicans against the bill..... None

In the lower house it was sought to take up and pass the bill promptly, but the Democrats solidly opposed a motion to suspend the rules for that purpose, and the effort failed. Shortly after this, however, a second effort met with success, the vote standing thus:

Democrats for the bill..... 38

Democrats against the bill..... 71

Republicans for the bill..... 141

Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was, as the old soldiers well know, promptly approved by President Harrison.

The next pension legislation of importance was the bill to pension prisoners of war, and giving them each $2 for every day they were held by the confederates.

When it came up in the lower house the following vote was had:

Democrats for the bill..... 24

Democrats against the bill..... 78

Republicans for the bill..... 119

Republicans against the bill..... None

To sum up, the following gives the totals of 14 votes in congress upon the most important of the various pension measures presented since the war, viz:

Democrats for the bills..... 417

Democrats against the bills..... 648

Republicans for the bills..... 1,066

Republicans against the bills..... None

The following statement, prepared from official records, shows the number of pension bills to which each president since the war has refused his signature:

Lincoln ..... None

Johnson ..... None

Grant ..... 5

Hayes ..... None

Garfield ..... None

Arthur ..... None

Cleveland ..... 524

Harrison ..... None

McKinley ..... None

Comment is unnecessary to enable the old soldier to decide which party is most inclined to deal justly and liberally with him.

Every pension law passed by congress was passed by Republican votes. Every pension bill defeated has been defeated by Democratic votes; and every pension bill vetoed, 529 in number, was vetoed by a Democratic president, except five.

Can an ex-union soldier expect any favors of a party with such a record? No. Will you vote for a man for congress who musters and votes with such a party? No.

Then let us rally under the banner of the grand old party which carried the war in which we fought, for it is the duty of every true Republican to use all honorable means to bring every veteran into line during the campaign.

Laws enacted by the Republican legislature of Ohio in the interest of ex-soldiers.

The legislature of Ohio has passed many laws for the benefit of the ex-soldiers since the war of the rebellion, and all of these laws were passed by a Republican legislature, among which are the following:

Veteran Bounty.

The legislature passed a law soon after the close of the war of the rebellion, granting a veteran bounty of $100 to all soldiers who served two years in the same organization and then re-enlisted for three years more, or during the war. This law was passed April 16, 1867.

Burial of Soldiers.

A law was passed providing for the burial of all ex-union soldiers, their mothers, wives or widows, and army nurses, the expense to be paid by the township in which they resided.

Soldiers' Home.

A law for the erection of a soldiers' home at Sandusky, Ohio, which has now become one of the best and most prominent homes for disabled soldiers in the United States.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home.

Another law was passed for the erection of a soldiers' and sailors' orphans home at Xenia, Ohio, where thousands of children of veterans have been educated, many of whom are now prominent and useful citizens of this and other states of the union.

A law providing for the relief of soldiers and their families who are in needy circumstances, known as the soldiers' relief fund, and relief is furnished to thousands of families every year.

A law authorizing the commissioners to levy a tax for the erection of a soldiers' monument in every county of the state.

The last legislature of Ohio also passed a law providing for the admission of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the State Soldiers' Home.

A law providing for the admission of the children of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home at Xenia, Ohio.

A law providing for the erection of a monument at Andersonville National cemetery, Georgia, in memory of the Ohio soldiers who died in that prison during the war of the rebellion.

Another law providing for the enumeration by the township assessors of the soldiers of all wars who now reside in Ohio, giving their company and regiment and their postoffice address. This roster which is now on file in the adjutant general's office, will be of great benefit to soldiers in getting evidence in their pension claims.

It is not only to the interest of every soldier that we should elect a Republican president, but that the ex-soldiers should all be "lined up" for the whole Republican ticket. The Republican party has been the true and consistent friend of the soldier from 1861 to the present time and under all circumstances.

To the Ex-Union Soldiers.

By W. L. CURRY, Manager of Soldiers' Home.

On the eve of a national election which involves not only the election of state officials, but members of congress on whom will rest the responsibility of enacting important laws and a president, it is well for every veteran, whatever ticket he may vote, to compare the record of the Republican and Democratic parties as to pension legislation and other matters in which every ex-union soldier is very much interested.

The Republican party has always been the friend of the soldier. It is responsible for the liberal pension laws which have been enacted in his behalf, and for the just and fair rulings which have characterized the application of those laws while the Republican party is in power. Nearly four billion dollars have been distributed to the ex-soldiers under the pension laws now on the statute books, millions of people have been protected from want, and hundreds of thousands of brave and loyal men have been shielded in their declining years from the absolute destitution, want and suffering which their enfeebled condition, by reason of service to the nation, would have brought, save for the generous legislation which the Republican party has enacted in their behalf.

The Republican party is responsible and makes no denial of its responsibility for the present pension system of the United States, there is but one way for such reform; that is by law. Can you expect any liberal pension legislation by the Democratic party with such a record as it has made in congress? Let us see! Here is the record, read and then reflect:

In 1878 a bill was passed by the lower house of congress repealing all limitations of time in which applications for arrears of pensions should be made. Upon this the vote stood:

Democrats for the bill..... 48
Democrats against the bill..... 61
Republicans for the bill..... 116
Republicans against the bill..... None

Subsequently a bill increasing the pensions of widows from $8 to $12 was voted on with the following results:

Democrats for the bill..... 80
Democrats against the bill..... 66
Republicans for the bill..... 118
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Amputation bill—Passed Aug. 4, 1886:

Democrats for the bill..... 75
Democrats against the bill..... 51
Republicans for the bill..... 91
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Widows' Arrears Bill—(Giving arrears of pension, from the death of their husbands, to widows entitled to pensions.) Passed the senate by the following vote:

Democrats for the bill..... 1
Democrats against the bill..... 20
Republicans for the bill..... 22
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Disability Pension bill—(Gives pension to all disabled soldiers and to dependent parents and children.) Passed June, 1890:

Democrats for the bill..... 28
Democrats against the bill..... 56
Republicans for the bill..... 117
Republicans against the bill..... None

Same bill in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 3
Democrats against the bill..... 18
Republicans for the bill..... 31
Republicans against the bill..... None

In the Forty-ninth congress a Dependent Pension bill was voted on in the senate with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 7
Democrats against the bill..... 14

Republicans for the bill..... 27
Republicans against the bill..... None

In the same congress a similar bill was voted upon in the house of representatives, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 66
Democrats against the bill..... 76
Republicans for the bill..... 114
Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was vetoed by President Cleveland. An effort was made in the lower house to pass the bill over the veto, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 37
Democrats against the bill..... 125
Republicans for the bill..... 138
Republicans against the bill..... None

Showing that 29 Democrats who had originally voted for the bill hastened to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the president's veto to vote against it, thus, testifying their real sentiments, while 20 others who had dodged the first vote came up promptly to the support of the veto.

The vote upon which the Dependent Pension Bill was finally passed by the Republican congress, of which Tom Reed was speaker, stood as follows in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 10
Democrats against the bill..... 12
Republicans for the bill..... 32
Republicans against the bill..... None

In the lower house it was sought to take up and pass the bill promptly, but the Democrats solidly opposed a motion to suspend the rules for that purpose, and the effort failed. Shortly after this, however, a second effort met with success, the vote standing thus:

Democrats for the bill..... 38
Democrats against the bill..... 71
Republicans for the bill..... 141
Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was, as the old soldiers well know, promptly approved by President Harrison.

The next pension legislation of importance was the bill to pension prisoners of war, and giving them each $2 for every day they were held by the confederates.

When it came up in the lower house the following vote was had:

Democrats for the bill..... 24
Democrats against the bill..... 78
Republicans for the bill..... 119
Republicans against the bill..... None

To sum up, the following gives the totals of 14 votes in congress upon the most important of the various pension measures presented since the war, viz:

Democrats for the bills..... 417
Democrats against the bills..... 648
Republicans for the bills..... 1,066
Republicans against the bills..... None

The following statement, prepared from official records, shows the number of pension bills to which each president since the war has refused his signature:

Lincoln ..... None
Johnson ..... None
Grant ..... 5
Hayes ..... None
Garfield ..... None
Arthur ..... None
Cleveland ..... 524
Harrison ..... None
McKinley ..... None

Comment is unnecessary to enable the old soldier to decide which party is most inclined to deal justly and liberally with him.

Every pension law passed by congress was passed by Republican votes. Every pension bill defeated has been defeated by Democratic votes; and every pension bill vetoed, 529 in number, was vetoed by a Democratic president, except five.

Can an ex-union soldier expect any favors of a party with such a record? No. Will you vote for a man for congress who musters and votes with such a party? No.

Then let us rally under the banner of the grand old party which carried the war in which we fought, for it is the duty of every true Republican to use all honorable means to bring every veteran into line during the campaign.

Laws enacted by the Republican legislature of Ohio in the interest of ex-soldiers.

The legislature of Ohio has passed many laws for the benefit of the ex-soldiers since the war of the rebellion, and all of these laws were passed by a Republican legislature, among which are the following:

Veteran Bounty.

The legislature passed a law soon after the close of the war of the rebellion, granting a veteran bounty of $100 to all soldiers who served two years in the same organization and then re-enlisted for three years more, or during the war. This law was passed April 16, 1867.

Burial of Soldiers.

A law was passed providing for the burial of all ex-union soldiers, their mothers, wives or widows, and army nurses, the expense to be paid by the township in which they resided.

Soldiers' Home.

A law for the erection of a soldiers' home at Sandusky, Ohio, which has now become one of the best and most prominent homes for disabled soldiers in the United States.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home.

Another law was passed for the erection of a soldiers' and sailors' orphans home at Xenia, Ohio, where thousands of children of veterans have been educated, many of whom are now prominent and useful citizens of this and other states of the union.

A law providing for the relief of soldiers and their families who are in needy circumstances, known as the soldiers' relief fund, and relief is furnished to thousands of families every year.

A law authorizing the commissioners to levy a tax for the erection of a soldiers' monument in every county of the state.

The last legislature of Ohio also passed a law providing for the admission of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the State Soldiers' Home.

A law providing for the admission of the children of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home at Xenia, Ohio.

A law providing for the erection of a monument at Andersonville National cemetery, Georgia, in memory of the Ohio soldiers who died in that prison during the war of the rebellion.

Another law providing for the enumeration by the township assessors of the soldiers of all wars who now reside in Ohio, giving their company and regiment and their postoffice address. This roster which is now on file in the adjutant general's office, will be of great benefit to soldiers in getting evidence in their pension claims.

It is not only to the interest of every soldier that we should elect a Republican president, but that the ex-soldiers should all be "lined up" for the whole Republican ticket. The Republican party has been the true and consistent friend of the soldier from 1861 to the present time and under all circumstances.

GOLDEN RULE SAM JONES

Three Speeches Were Made but the Enthusiasm Was All on the Outside.

A FAIR CROWD WAS PRESENT.

A good sized audience largely composed of Republicans and Prohibitionists assembled at the opera house last night out of curiosity to see Golden Rule Sam Jones, of Toledo, and ex-Mayor James A. Rice, of Canton.

They were disappointed however, as the Democrats kept that promise like they keep all others, and neither Jones or Rice were present.

Those of the audience who knew the speakers had not arrived went home, while the balance remained in blissful ignorance and waited and waited.

Hon. G. P. Ikert introduced W. G. Brown, of Detroit, who was advertised to speak on the "Duties of Trades Unions and Workingmen." The workingmen who heard that speech would have a hard time finding a head or tail to it. It consisted principally of an attempt to make votes against Hon. R. W. Taylor.

Then came T. J. McNamara, of Youngstown, and he launched forth upon the Pacific ocean and stopped at the Philippine islands. What he knew about the Philippine islands would have put Aguinaldo to shame.

Hon. A. J. Woolf, of Youngstown, was the next on the program. He spoke for an hour and included in his speech free silver, trusts, imperialism and every other issue he could think of.

The meeting was devoid of enthusiasm, although the few Democrats present tried hard to make some.

To the Editor of the News Review.

Since the railroad companies have decided to grant a reduced rate of one fare, round trip ticket, to all voters, the majority of the Ohio State University students are as one man in their intention to go home for the election.

Among the Ohio State University people who will leave Saturday for East Liverpool are James McGarry and George Whittaker.

The daily chapel exercises of 10 minutes' length, which have been the rule in the Ohio State University for years past, have been superseded by a weekly convocation which occupies a full hour. Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock is the hour for these services, the character of which is varied from week to week, with the view of keeping them always interesting.

President Thompson usually addresses the students, and his last discussion was to have been "Political Parties in a Democracy," but in view of the recent death of Hon. John Sherman he devoted the hour to a review of the life and public works of John Sherman.

Browning and Alcyone literary societies held a joint meeting Friday evening in Alcyone hall. A literary and musical program was rendered, after which the evening was spent in dancing.

GENERAL FRANZ SIGEL,

THE HEROIC OLD VETERAN

Speaks to His German Fellow-Citizens, His Comrades
of the Army of the Republic, and the Sons of Veterans.

Fellow Citizens—The day of the national election is near. You have to deposit your votes—a sacred act, because it should be the expression of your conscience, the verification of your patriotism, and of your courage as men, as citizens and as soldiers. If it were only the silver question about which you want to decide, you might hesitate for want of thoroughly understanding its bearing on the financial affairs of the country; but so much you know, that the 16 to 1 scheme involves—I would not say a lie—but a false proposition, which, as honest men, you cannot and will not approve.

But beside this, there are other questions you have to consider, as important and even more so, than the demand for the unlimited coinage of silver. The demand of the silverites tends to a financial revolution, repudiation and ruin; that of the Populist extremists and anarchists to the subversion of social order, a war of masses against classes and the possession of wealth. They strike against the very foundation of the American republic, denying the right of man to enjoy the fruits of his labor and the acquisition of wealth by his genius or talent, by his industry and perseverance. They would like to see the American people ruled by State Landlordism and State Monopolism and by an army of "State Superintendents," their myrmidons, catch polls and spies. What do they care about the great sacrifices of the war for the restoration of the union? What do they care about the late conflict with Spain, provoked by that nation? Or about the great results gained by the patriotism, bravery and the losses of our army and navy in the field? What do they care about the depreciation of the pensions, on which the veterans and their families or their widows and orphans depend for the rest of their days? What do the silverites, Populists and Anarchists care about the supreme court, the arbiter in interstate troubles and litigations, political and civil? What will become of the independence and impartiality of the court when its members will be debased to mere servants of the majority of congress, and tools of partisanship and a subservient president? Where then is any guarantee against internal strife, secession, war and disintegration? Whether native born or adopted, Republicans or Democrats, politically you are nothing else but Americans.

The American republic is your country and that of your children and your children's children. Stand firm on the basis of the constitution, the laws and institutions of the land which you defended, and will defend, and do not submit to the eccentric demands and agitations of its open or secret enemies, like Carl Schurz and his few misguided followers.

Let McKinley and Roosevelt be your leaders! You, Sons of Veterans, are the descendants of patriotic and brave men! You have inherited their names, inscribed on the rolls of honor, many of them made famous by their deeds of valor and high positions gained. Many of you were in the thick of battle, the anguish, sorrows and privations of your mothers, by you grew up, perhaps, in war, but all of you participated in the struggle, regained and preserved the patriotic and self-sacrificing army of Republicans and Democrats, now dead or living. We are now in this crisis and neither by indifference or negligence you will be prevented from assisting us in maintaining what your fathers gained and what is your greatest inheritance; the unity and safety, the power and prosperity of the American republic.

Sincerely your comrade and friend,
F. SIGEL,
Late Maj. Gen. of Vols.

The students in psychology visited the State hospital for the insane Saturday. The different phases of insanity offer valuable opportunities for the study of mental conditions.

The foot ball game played last Saturday on home grounds, was a hopeless defeat for Oberlin. The visitors were plainly outclassed by the home team, who showed themselves to be in fine physical condition and who played a strictly offensive game. The only thing which marred the game was the unfair decisions of the umpire, Charles Young, of Wesleyan. His ruling out of certain university plays with the attempt to aid Oberlin, was so visibly unjust that some of the Oberlin players themselves were compelled to blush for him.

If the residents of Columbus were not yet familiar with the score (17 to 0) and with the "Wahoo! Wahoo! Rip-rip, Bazoo! I yell, I yell, O. S. U," last Saturday they certainly became so by midnight.

Fellow Citizens—The day of the national election is near. You have to deposit your votes—a sacred act, because it should be the expression of your conscience, the verification of your patriotism, and of your courage as men, as citizens and as soldiers. If it were only the silver question about which you want to decide, you might hesitate for want of thoroughly understanding its bearing on the financial affairs of the country; but so much you know, that the 16 to 1 scheme involves—I would not say a lie—but a false proposition, which, as honest men, you cannot and will not approve.

But beside this, there are other questions you have to consider, as important and even more so, than the demand for the unlimited coinage of silver. The demand of the silverites tends to a financial revolution, repudiation and ruin; that of the Populistic extremists and anarchists to the subversion of social order, a war of masses against classes and the possession of wealth. They strike against the very foundation of the American republic, denying the right of man to enjoy the fruits of his labor and the acquisition of wealth by his genius or talent, by his industry and perseverance. They would like to see the American people ruled by State Landlordism and State Monopolism and by an army of "State Superintendents," their myrmidons, catch polls and spies. What do they care about the great sacrifices of the war for the restoration of the union? What do they care about the late conflict with Spain, provoked by that nation? Or about the great results gained by the patriotism, bravery and the losses of our army and navy in the field? What do they care about the depreciation of the pensions, on which the veterans and their families or their widows and orphans depend for the rest of their days? What do the silverites, Populists and Anarchists care about the supreme court, the arbiter in interstate troubles and litigations, political and civil? What will become of the independence and impartiality of the court when its members will be debased to mere servants of the majority of congress, and tools of partisanship and a subservient president? Where then is any guarantee against internal strife, secession, war and disintegration? Whether native born or adopted, Republicans or Democrats, politically you are nothing else but Americans.

The American republic is your country and that of your children and your children's children. Stand firm on the basis of the constitution, the laws and institutions of the land which you defended, and will defend, and do not submit to the eccentric demands and agitations of its open or secret enemies, like Carl Schurz and his few misguided followers.

Let McKinley and Roosevelt be your leaders! You, Sons of Veterans, are the descendants of patriotic and brave men! You have inherited their names, inscribed on the rolls of honor, many of them made famous by their deeds of valor and high positions gained. Many of you were in the thick of battle, the anguish, sorrows, privations of your motherland, you grew up, perhaps, in war, but all of you participated in the struggle, regained and preserved the free and self-sacrificing army of Republicans and Democrats, now dead or living. We are with you in this crisis and neither by indifference or negligence you will be prevented from assisting us in maintaining what your fathers gained and what is your greatest inheritance; the unity and safety, the power and prosperity of the American republic.

Sincerely your comrade and friend,
F. SIGEL,
Late Maj. Gen. of Vols.

OLD SOLDIERS, READ THIS

The efforts of the Democratic party to drag the pension question into politics is one phase of the campaign. That the Democratic party has been the relentless enemy of the ex-union soldier, and that it has stubbornly fought every effort to enact liberal pension laws, are facts revealed by a careful examination of the "Congressional Record" on 14 important pension measures introduced since the civil war, and voted on by congress: Republicans for the bills....1,068 Republicans against the bills....None

Democrats for the bills....417 Democrats against the bills....648

A Democrat president, during his two administrations, vetoed 524 pension bills. Presidents Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison and McKinley never refused their signature to a single pension bill. President Grant withheld his signature only five times during his administration. The last Democratic administration instituted a board of revision to revise the allowance of pensions under President Harrison's administration. During the two years of the existence of this board, 8,694 pensioners were dropped from the rolls, and 23,702 pensions were reduced. A large proportion of the pensioners have been restored to the rolls, under the administration of President McKinley. The record shows the action of the Republican party on all pension legislation to have been along the most generous lines.

OLD SOLDIERS, READ THIS

The efforts of the Democratic party to drag the pension question into politics is one phase of the campaign. That the Democratic party has been the relentless enemy of the ex-union soldier, and that it has stubbornly fought every effort to enact liberal pension laws, are facts revealed by a careful examination of the "Congressional Record" on 14 important pension measures introduced since the civil war, and voted on by congress: Republicans for the bills...1,068 Republicans against the bills...None Democrats for the bills...417 Democrats against the bills...648

A Democrat president, during his two administrations, vetoed 524 pension bills. Presidents Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur, Harrison and McKinley never refused their signature to a single pension bill. President Grant withheld his signature only five times during his administration. The last Democratic administration instituted a board of revision to revise the allowance of pensions under President Harrison's administration. During the two years of the existence of this board, 8,694 pensioners were dropped from the rolls, and 23,702 pensions were reduced. A large proportion of the pensioners have been restored to the rolls, under the administration of President McKinley. The record shows the action of the Republican party on all pension legislation to have been along the most generous lines.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

MAJOR GENERAL SIGEL.

Read the article in today's issue from the pen of that gallant German-American soldier, Major General Franz Sigel. He will tell you, in plain terms, the cause of his faith in the great Republican party, and ask you to vote for McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole Republican ticket.

THOMAS E. MURPHY.

Thomas E. Murphy had a splendid audience of voters in his presence last night. He spoke under difficulties, as the noise of cheering, tin horns and a drum corps made it almost impossible, at times, for his hearers to catch his words. He bore the interruptions patiently, like a little man, winning the hearts of his hearers with side witticisms and pithy interpolations, to suit the occasion. He caught his audience in great shape, as was best evidenced by the hearty outbursts of applause. Mr. Murphy is a favorite in this section, and he added to his popularity last night.

COWARDLY CROKER.

And now Richard Croker whines and shows the yellow streak that exists in the heart and life of every tough and blackguard in existence. He berates and blames his parasitic followers because they are unable to deliver the goods, in the shape of votes, that he fondly imagined could be controlled by money and the promise of permitting the dives and dens and hell holes of New York to run at their own sweet will, in defiance of all law and order. The outlook is that New York state will give the Republican ticket over 100,000 of a majority. That same old coon. Let the eagle scream.

THE SOLDIER BOYS.

Every soldier, old and young, of the civil war or of the Spanish-American or Philippine war, should read every word on our first page today respecting the treatment of our soldier boys and along the line of pension work. Democracy has always been against the soldier, while Republicanism has always been in favor of him. Every Republican president, with the exception of Grant, has a clean record in favor of pensioners, and he took the stand against but five pensions, while Grover Cleveland blocked the boys in blue between 500 and 600 times. Read

SPECIAL NOTICE.

We respectfully call the attention of our agents, and the music-loving public in general, to the fact that certain parties are manufacturing and have placed upon the market a cheap Piano, bearing a name so similar to our own (with a slight difference in spelling) that the purchaser may be led to believe that he is purchasing a genuine "Sohmer Piano."

We deem it our duty to those who have been favorably impressed with the fine quality and high reputation of the "Sohmer Piano" to warn them against the possibility of an imposition by unscrupulous dealers or agents. Every genuine "Sohmer Piano" has the above Trade Mark stamped upon the sounding board.

the record. It is composed of facts, and no Democrat of common intelligence dare attempt to deny it. All legislation, state or national, in favor of the soldier, has been made by the Republican party.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

My Republican friend, have you made note how closely and intimately Prohibitionists affiliate with and cling to Democracy? As a rule, the average Prohibitionist has no use for a Republican or the Republican party. He will admit that Democracy has always been the rum party and the party of drunkenness and debauchery; and admit, further, that the Republican party is the only party, outside of his own organization, which has ever advocated movements along the line of morality and right, and then hate the Republican party with a good and square hatred and nestle right up to Democracy, as was the case at the opera house last night, when the audience was composed largely of Prohibitionists. It looks, to a man up a tree, as if very many of these so-called Prohibitionists are trying to induce Republicans to vote the Prohibition ticket, and they themselves, hot on the surface for John G. Woolley, will quietly vote the straight Bryan ticket. So, have a care, my Republican friend, and vote the ticket straight, McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole ball of wisdom; put your cross mark right under the eagle.

THE NEW YORK SUN.

Republicans who are members of any union or trades organization will do well to note the fact that Typographical union No. 6, New York city, has permitted Democratic members of that organization to make the union a tool for the advancement of Bryan and his followers. Taking sides politically with any party is contrary to the laws of the International Typographical union. The "American Workingman," a strong labor paper of New York city, states that the action against the Republican party, on account of the New York Sun being run by rat, or unfair labor, was engineered by a clique of Democrats in No. 6. Only 400 members were present, 250 voting for the action and 150 against, out of a membership of 6,000. An attempt was made to make an appeal against this unfair and unjust vote, and the constitutional number of signatures was secured to demand an open meeting, but the Democratic president of No. 6 overruled the matter, virtually disfranchising 5,600 voters or members; and, when protest was made against the trickster's decision, he ruled that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Was there ever known, in the history of union organizations, such brazen effrontery and cheek as this fellow assumes? A vote had been taken, right under his nose and censorship and direction, against the Republican party, and yet he unblushingly declared, when it suited his Democratic purpose, that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Chairman Hanna, of the National Republican committee, did everything he could to settle the matter, and did get the interested parties together, but nothing could be effected. A great mass of the Allied Printing Trades members of New York city condemn No. 6 for its unprecedented and illegitimate and non-union entrance to the political field, and all Republican unionists will make note of this fact, and vote straight for McKinley, Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket.

M'ALLISTER AND OTHERS INDICTED

Four Murderers of Miss Bosschietter Held on Charges of Murder and Criminal Assault—The Dead Girl's Stomach Is Being Examined.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.—The audience in Judge Harkalow's court broke into a fit of laughter on the review of the evidence against Joseph Johnson, on trial for criminal assault. The prisoner joined in the laughter, when suddenly the judge ordered him to stand up. He then in a few brief words sentenced Johnson to 10 years in state's prison. Johnson almost fainted, and his wife screamed with terror as he was led away.

Johnson was foreman in a silk mill and his victim was 16 years old.

New York, Nov. 3.—The grand jury at Paterson, N. J., handed up an indictment against Walter C. McAllister, George J. Kerr, William A. Death and Andrew Campbell, who are charged with the murder of Jennie Bosschietter, who was drugged to death on Oct. 18. There were two indictments against each of the young men, one for murder and the other for rape, the first, it is said, also embracing the latter.

It is alleged that in the course of the discussion of the case among the members of the grand jury it was said that Jennie's heart was weak and it was possible that this may have been the cause of death. There was no evidence, that chloral was administered, and this point can only be determined by the analysis of the stomach, which is now going on in New York, or by a confession from one of the accused men.

It is said in support of the statement that death may have been due to a weak heart, that on one occasion Jennie, while standing on a street corner, talking to two young men, fell in a faint and remained unconscious for half an hour. The vote on the indictment is said to be unanimous.

It is said it may be needful to accept the confession of Campbell or Death, or both, as witnesses and accept pleas of guilty from them to the crime of rape only. If the chemical analysis is strong enough, the confessions may not be used. Even if the analysis does not establish the administration of the drug, it is said that the state may elect to eliminate that feature of the matter and proceed to trial upon assumption that the violence of the assault caused heart failure and death and that would entail the death penalty as much as the administration of the drug.

NON-UNIONIST BADLY HURT.

Hot Fight Between Strikers and Workers Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The strike at the Riverside works of the National Tube company developed into a riot that will result in the death of at least one of the participants. A pitched battle was fought by the strikers and the men who have taken their places. Shots were exchanged and missiles of every description were used in the attack and resistance. Walter Davis, one of the non-union men, was dangerously injured. The back of his head was crushed with some heavy missile. He will die. More trouble is anticipated. The strike is not a question of wages, but a demand that the employers recognize the union.

New York, Nov. 3.—On the authority of an "intimate friend of the late Jay Gould," the Evening World announced that the debts of Count Boni de Castellane will probably be paid in full by the Goulds at once, amounting to $4,700,000.

The Gould millions have nearly doubled since Jay Gould's death, and Ana's share is nearly $18,000,000, and her income nearly $1,000,000, than $600,000, as before stated. The total value of the Gould estate is now over $125,000,000.

WAS M'KINLEY NIGHT.

Mr. Murphy is no stranger in East Liverpool and in beginning his address said he had taken a walk during the day and was surprised at the progress made since his last visit here. He judged from the amount of building going on in the city and the way the town was spreading out that the people of East Liverpool were in favor of expansion.

The speaker paid a glowing tribute to Abraham Lincoln in his stand upon the slavery question, showing how similar was the position of Democracy today to that of 1864. Everything was unconstitutional then and they proposed to stop the war against rebellion. The howl of imperialism is a full brother to the copperhead trash we heard at that time.

In the course of his remarks the speaker made a comparison which made a great hit. He said Bryan reminded him of the Platte river, which though 2,000 miles long, was widest at the mouth and only two inches deep.

In closing the gentleman urged all Republicans to go to the polls next Tuesday and so vote that the standard of intelligence and patriotism of the people might not be lowered by the copperhead principles of Democracy.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

Read the article in today's issue from the pen of that gallant German-American soldier, Major General Franz Sigel. He will tell you, in plain terms, the cause of his faith in the great Republican party, and ask you to vote for McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole Republican ticket.

THOMAS E. MURPHY.

Thomas E. Murphy had a splendid audience of voters in his presence last night. He spoke under difficulties, as the noise of cheering, tin horns and a drum corps made it almost impossible, at times, for his hearers to catch his words. He bore the interruptions patiently, like a little man, winning the hearts of his hearers with side witticisms and pithy interpolations, to suit the occasion. He caught his audience in great shape, as was best evidenced by the hearty outbursts of applause. Mr. Murphy is a favorite in this section, and he added to his popularity last night.

COWARDLY CROKER.

And now Richard Croker whines and shows the yellow streak that exists in the heart and life of every tough and blackguard in existence. He berates and blames his parasitic followers because they are unable to deliver the goods, in the shape of votes, that he fondly imagined could be controlled by money and the promise of permitting the dives and dens and hell holes of New York to run at their own sweet will, in defiance of all law and order. The outlook is that New York state will give the Republican ticket over 100,000 of a majority. That same old coon. Let the eagle scream.

THE SOLDIER BOYS.

Every soldier, old and young, of the civil war or of the Spanish-American or Philippine war, should read every word on our first page today respecting the treatment of our soldier boys and along the line of pension work. Democracy has always been against the soldier, while Republicanism has always been in favor of him. Every Republican president, with the exception of Grant, has a clean record in favor of pensioners, and he took the stand against but five pensions, while Grover Cleveland blocked the boys in blue between 500 and 600 times. ## WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

My Republican friend, have you made note how closely and intimately Prohibitionists affiliate with and cling to Democracy? As a rule, the average Prohibitionist has no use for a Republican or the Republican party. He will admit that Democracy has always been the rum party and the party of drunkenness and debauchery; and admit, further, that the Republican party is the only party, outside of his own organization, which has ever advocated movements along the line of morality and right, and then hate the Republican party with a good and square hatred and nestle right up to Democracy, as was the case at the opera house last night, when the audience was composed largely of Prohibitionists. It looks, to a man up a tree, as if very many of these so-called Prohibitionists are trying to induce Republicans to vote the Prohibition ticket, and they themselves, hot on the surface for John G. Woolley, will quietly vote the straight Bryan ticket. So, have a care, my Republican friend, and vote the ticket straight, McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole ball of wisdom; put your cross mark right under the eagle.

THE NEW YORK SUN.

Republicans who are members of any union or trades organization will do well to note the fact that Typographical union No. 6, New York city, has permitted Democratic members of that organization to make the union a tool for the advancement of Bryan and his followers. Taking sides politically with any party is contrary to the laws of the International Typographical union. The "American Workingman," a strong labor paper of New York city, states that the action against the Republican party, on account of the New York Sun being run by rat, or unfair labor, was engineered by a clique of Democrats in No. 6. Only 400 members were present, 250 voting for the action and 150 against, out of a membership of 6,000. An attempt was made to make an appeal against this unfair and unjust vote, and the constitutional number of signatures was secured to demand an open meeting, but the Democratic president of No. 6 overruled the matter, virtually disfranchising 5,600 voters or members; and, when protest was made against the trickster's decision, he ruled that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Was there ever known, in the history of union organizations, such brazen effrontery and cheek as this fellow assumes? A vote had been taken, right under his nose and censorship and direction, against the Republican party, and yet he unblushingly declared, when it suited his Democratic purpose, that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Chairman Hanna, of the National Republican committee, did everything he could to settle the matter, and did get the interested parties together, but nothing could be effected. A great mass of the Allied Printing Trades members of New York city condemn No. 6 for its unprecedented and illegitimate and non-union entrance to the political field, and all Republican unionists will make note of this fact, and vote straight for McKinley, Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket.

M'ALLISTER AND OTHERS INDICTED

Four Murderers of Miss Bosschleier Held on Charges of Murder and Criminal Assault—The Dead Girl's Stomach Is Being Examined.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.—The audience in Judge Harkalow's court broke into a fit of laughter on the review of the evidence against Joseph Johnson, on trial for criminal assault. The prisoner joined in the laughter, when suddenly the judge ordered him to stand up. He then in a few brief words sentenced Johnson to 10 years in state's prison. Johnson almost fainted, and his wife screamed with terror as he was led away.

Johnson was foreman in a silk mill and his victim was 16 years old.

New York, Nov. 3.—The grand jury at Paterson, N. J., handed up an indictment against Walter C. McAllister, George J. Kerr, William A. Death and Andrew Campbell, who are charged with the murder of Jennie Bosschleier, who was drugged to death on Oct. 18. There were two indictments against each of the young men, one for murder and the other for rape, the first, it is said, also embracing the latter.

It is alleged that in the course of the discussion of the case among the members of the grand jury it was said that Jennie's heart was weak and it was possible that this may have been the cause of death. There was no evidence that chloral was administered, and this point can only be determined by the analysis of the stomach, which is now going on in New York, or by a confession from one of the accused men.

It is said in support of the statement that death may have been due to a weak heart, that on one occasion Jennie, while standing on a street corner, talking to two young men, fell in a faint and remained unconscious for half an hour. The vote on the indictment is said to be unanimous.

It is said it may be needful to accept the confession of Campbell or Death, or both, as witnesses and accept pleas of guilty from them to the crime of rape only. If the chemical analysis is strong enough, the confessions may not be used. Even if the analysis does not establish the administration of the drug, it is said that the state may elect to eliminate that feature of the matter and proceed to trial upon assumption that the violence of the assault caused heart failure and death and that would entail the death penalty as much as the administration of the drug.

EAST END.

Had a Good Turnout.

The Fifth ward undoubtedly deserves the credit for turning out the largest delegation in the demonstration last night. No less than 40 horsemen from this section were in line. John Searight, one of the number, had an experience at the corner of Fifth and Washington, which neither he or the other fellow will soon forget. He wore a huge yellow sash and this was grabbed by some one, who almost succeeded in dragging Searight from the saddle. He handed the reins to another horseman and climbing to the ground proceeded to punch the fresh individual until he was glad to get away. The occurrence did not interfere with the procession in the least.

Windup of the campaign Monday night at the wigwam. Winship.

Look Out for Them.

The people of the city are warned to be on their guard against a few unscrupulous Prohibitionists who are working a very clever scheme to cut down the usual Republican majority. The plan is this: They will go to a recognized Republican and say there is a Prohibitionist in another part of the city who would like to pair with him, and stay away from the polls on election day. Now they take good care that the men are not acquainted, nor have no knowledge of the other's political belief. Now it happened that both men were Republicans and that if the plan works two Republicans will be prevented from casting their vote for the candidate of their choice.

Didn't Get the Horses.

The residents of Chaffinville do not stand well with the Republicans of East End today. The claim is made that Chaffin himself had promised his horses to several parties, but when they went for them they were refused. As a result much inconvenience was experienced in securing other animals.

SOUTH SIDE.

Large Sized Row.

A large sized row occurred in the upper part of Chester Thursday night near a shanty inhabited by a number of colored people.

A man named Steel, who is employed on the Liverpool side of the river by Contractor McLaughlin, has been making himself exceedingly obnoxious to the female inhabitants of the community for several weeks. On the night in question the Chester people determined to put a stop to it and a fight was the result, in which Steel drew a revolver, a razor and several other implements of war, which were promptly taken from him. When he got clear of his assailants he was badly used up, and it is hardly likely he will venture to this side of the river very soon. The Chester colored people are said to have armed themselves and to have made the statement that if he makes his appearance in that vicinity again they will not hesitate to kill him.

Col. Winship Wigwam, Monday.

Notes of Southside.

Miss Nannie and Blanch Damon were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson today. They returned to their home in Cumberland this afternoon.

Thomas Oaks is today engaged in excavating for some improvements at the new residence of Samuel Allison.

THE CHELSEA.

Statement Made That It Will Start Up if McKinley is Elected.

Toronto Tribune.

We learned yesterday that the big Chelsea China company had leased its pottery to East Liverpool parties in which Hugh McNicol and Charley Smith figured very prominently. A lease of five years with a purchase privilege was secured. The papers have all been taken out and are now ready for the final touch, but if McKinley is not elected the deal is off. If he is, then some up-to-date machinery is to be put in, including a new dynamo for their own electric light and several additions, which will make the Chelsea one of the most complete plants in the valley. They say they will operate it to its fullest capacity, and if it is it means employment for 300 people.

George Clayton, who was here, gave out the information as we give it to the public.

VERY HANDSOME.

The Finishing on the Ceilings of the New Potters National Bank.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

EAST END.

Had a Good Turnout.

The Fifth ward undoubtedly deserves the credit for turning out the largest delegation in the demonstration last night. No less than 40 horsemen from this section were in line. John Searight, one of the number, had an experience at the corner of Fifth and Washington, which neither he or the other fellow will soon forget. He wore a huge yellow sash and this was grabbed by some one, who almost succeeded in dragging Searight from the saddle. He handed the reins to another horseman and climbing to the ground proceeded to punch the fresh individual until he was glad to get away. The occurrence did not interfere with the procession in the least.

Look Out for Them.

The people of the city are warned to be on their guard against a few unscrupulous Prohibitionists who are working a very clever scheme to cut down the usual Republican majority. The plan is this: They will go to a recognized Republican and say there is a Prohibitionist in another part of the city who would like to pair with him, and stay away from the polls on election day. Now they take good care that the men are not acquainted, nor have no knowledge of the other's political belief. Now it happened that both men were Republicans and that if the plan works two Republicans will be prevented from casting their vote for the candidate of their choice.

THE CHELSEA.

Statement Made That It Will Start Up if McKinley is Elected.

Toronto Tribune.

We learned yesterday that the big Chelsea China company had leased its pottery to East Liverpool parties in which Hugh McNicol and Charley Smith figured very prominently. A lease of five years with a purchase privilege was secured. The papers have all been taken out and are now ready for the final touch, but if McKinley is not elected the deal is off. If he is, then some up-to-date machinery is to be put in, including a new dynamo for their own electric light and several additions, which will make the Chelsea one of the most complete plants in the valley. They say they will operate it to its fullest capacity, and if it is it means employment for 300 people.

George Clayton, who was here, gave out the information as we give it to the public.

VERY HANDSOME.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

SOUND MONEY PARADE

Republican Demonstration In New York.

WERE ABOUT 140,000 MEN IN LINE.

Governor Roosevelt Rode at the Head and Later Reviewed the Marchers—Mrs. Roosevelt and Others Also on the Reviewing Stand.

New York, Nov. 3.—Thousands marched in the Republican Sound Money parade here today. Probably 140,000 men were in line.

The parade started from Worth street and Broadway about 10 o'clock. It was led by a platoon of mounted police. Behind the police platoon came Governor Roosevelt in a carriage, surrounded by members of the executive committee. Next was General McCook and staff, leading the parade proper. The place of honor was accorded to the Wholesale Dry Goods Men's Republican club, which had about 35,000 men in line. The bankers and brokers' division, 10,000 strong, followed the dry goods men.

General Molineux was grand marshal of the drug, paint and oil division, and his sons, Leslie and Cecil, acted as his staff officers.

A feature of the parade was the banners and bannerettes which were carried. Many unique designs had been devised, and they lent the necessary color and picturesqueness to make the parade attractive and interesting throughout.

The march was through Broadway to Waverley place, then through the Washington arch and up Fifth avenue to Fortieth street. Governor Roosevelt reviewed the parade from the stand just above the Dewey arch on the right hand side of the street. When the parade reached Madison square it was halted just long enough to allow the governor to take his place on the stand. Mrs. Roosevelt and her children had seats on the reviewing stand near the governor. Among the distinguished men who occupied places on the reviewing stand were Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, Benjamin B. Odell, ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, Franklin Murphy, John Proctor Clarke, General Francis V. Greene, General John H. Brooke, John A. McCall, Charles A. Schieren, Colonel A. S. Mills, Oscar S. Straus and Frederick S. Gibbs.

When the parade had passed the reviewing stand it continued up to Fortieth street and Fifth avenue in strict formation and at that point the disbandment began.

KNOW NO CLASS DISTINCTION.

President Writes a Letter, Being Unable to Review Parade.

New York, Nov. 3.—The following letter was given out by Secretary Drake, of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association:

"Canton, O., Nov. 1, 1900.

"My Dear Mr. Strong—Public duty will not permit me to accept the invitation to review the parade of Nov. 3 of the organization composing the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money association. I recall the inspiring demonstration of four years ago, and rejoice that now, as then, with undiminished ranks, citizens of all parties are in line for national honor, public law, sound currency and industrial prosperity, and, as in 1896, are arrayed against those who are exciting class hatred and discontent among the people of our happy country.

"We know no class distinctions in this fair land of ours. The American people will permit no stain to be put upon the American name.

"May those marching freemen and their patriotic allies throughout the country stamp out for all time in this republic the evils of repudiation and dishonor.

"Very sincerely yours,
"WILLIAM M'KINLEY.
Honorable William L. Strong, President Business Men's Republican Sound Money Association, New York."

BRYAN'S CHICAGO TOUR.

Addressed Larger Crowds, on Second Day—Auditors Threatened to Lynch a Questioner.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—William Jennings Bryan's program in Chicago the second day comprehended 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of Thursday and Thursday night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel Hall, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day. Two men in the audience asked, almost simultaneously, "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying, when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, however, but could not do so for some time owing to the uproar made by the crowd in expressing its resentment toward the inquisitor. The latter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's night meetings were held on the North, West, Southwest and South Sides of the city, the closing speech being made at midnight at State and Thirty-first streets.

EIGHT REPORTED MISSING.

Authorities Hunting for the Bookkeeper of Tarrant & Co.—Think He Knows of Explosives.

New York, Nov. 3.—The revised list of persons reported missing in connection with the Tarrant fire shows eight persons reported missing and not accounted for. Of these six are not known at the address given by the persons who reported them missing.

On the list is the name of Benjamin Moorhouse, a clerk for Tarrant & Co. The authorities persist in declaring their belief that he is alive and purposely keeping his whereabouts secret.

"We have detectives out after Moorhouse and expect to land him soon," said Assistant District Attorney Walsh.

Moorhouse's family and neighbors at Mount Clair, N. J., are convinced that he perished in the disaster.

The fire department's investigation of the explosion closed after the testimony of Louis Patterson and George Thompson, employees of Tarrant & Co., had been taken.

Thompson is bookkeeper for the firm, but he showed an ignorance of what was in storage in the upper floors and no important evidence was drawn from him. He said Moorhouse, the missing clerk, was the only man that knew just what material was in the building.

Dr. Lederle, health department analyst, who examined the seven drums found in the ruins, said that they had contained aniline oil, which is only a little less explosive than kerosene.

ALVORD LET GO AND REARRESTED.

His Bail Fixed at $150,000 For a Hearing Before U. S. Commissioner.

New York, Nov. 3.—City Magistrate Flammer discharged Cornelius L. Alvord, the defendant note teller of the First National bank, from custody. The magistrate said he was satisfied that he had no jurisdiction in the case. Alvord was allowed to leave the court room, but as soon as he reached the corridor he was rearrested by a United States marshal and taken before United States Commissioner Shields, accompanied by his counsel, Jacob F. Miller, and appeared to be very nervous as he faced the crowd which packed the commissioner's room. General Burnett, the United States district attorney, and his assistant, Mr. Baldwin, were present to represent the government. The prisoner, through his counsel, demanded an examination, which was set down for next Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Commissioner Shields fixed bail at $150,000, and in the absence of bondsman Alvord was delivered over to the possession of United States Marshal Henkel and taken to the Ludlow street jail.

MAKING SAMPLE GOOD ROAD.

Hundreds Interested In Perfecting Thoroughfares Near Canonsburg, Pa.

Canonsburg, Pa., Nov. 3.—There are about 500 men inspecting the sample road making out in North Strabane township, and nearly 300 took dinner at the old Hill church, ladies serving it, the proceeds to go to the good roads fund. All stages of the making of macadam stone road were open for inspection and the interest was great. Julius Lemoyne, of Washington, and W. A. McBride, of Strabane, gave pertinent talks, the burden of both being a plea for better roads.

M. O. Eldridge, under whose direction the road is being built, gave an illustrated address on good roads and how to make them. The day was fine. About 15 men, including eight from jail, are employed on the new road.

THE CRUEL EMPRESS.

Had Kwang-Su's Favorite Wife Drowned.

OFFICIALS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Five Found Guilty at Pao Ting Fu of Participation in Murders of Missionaries—Empress Likely to Be Barred From Any Part in Governing China.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Official telegrams from Count Von Waldersee show that all the German troops have arrived in China and been distributed.

A special dispatch to the Hamburg Correspondent says:

"In a well situated in the imperial palace precincts in Peking was found the body of Emperor Kwang Su's favorite wife, Shen Ti, whom the empress dowager caused to be drowned before the flight of the court from the capital. The second favorite, Shing Fi, and a hundred ladies belonging to the imperial harem are prisoners in the hands of the allies."

A dispatch from Pao Ting Fu, dated Thursday, says:

"Telegraphic connection has been completed with Peking, entirely by the Germans. The railway from Pao Ting Fu to the capital is nearly completed. French detachments are guarding the line. The health of the German troops is steadily improving."

Another batch of letters from soldiers in China appears in a number of papers, among them the Hanover Courier, which editorially demands official statements with reference to the details given by the writers of the cruelties alleged to have been committed by German troops in China. This demand is warmly supported by the Freisinnige Zeitung.

TC PROVIDE FOR INDEMNITY.

Chinese Revenue May Be Increased. Other Points to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 3.—It was stated in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the question of indemnity, punishment, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz., first, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisors, from all participation in the Chinese movement, as they are to blame for the Boxer outrages, but no personal punishment of the woman is intended; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold, instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem, so that indemnities can be paid the powers; and, third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung Li Yamen.

Foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body, and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer troubles.

CHINESE SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Accused of Being Connected With Murders of Missionaries.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 3.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Shung-on, the military commandant; General Kiu and two other officials.

THEOLOGICAL M. C. A. S.

Conference Met in Allegheny City and Opened With Prayer.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—The first business session of the triennial conference of the Young Men's Christian Association belonging to the theological seminaries in the United States and Canada opened with a prayer meeting at the Western Theological seminary, in Allegheny. Formal business was taken up by the delegates in the Fourth Presbyterian church, at Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, afterward.

The first feature was an address by Bishop J. M. Thoburn, of India. This was followed by addresses by the Rev. C. Armand Miller, of New York; Prof. Dyson Hague, of Wickliffe college, and President H. C. Weston, of Crozier Theological seminary.

Later there was a discussion as to the best method of furthering the work in seminaries. The discussion was led by Prof. Earl Taylor, of Chicago, and was followed by the Rev. Cecil Owen, of London, Canada. Addresses were made last evening by Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, of New York, and the Rev. William F. McDowell, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, of New York.

The Rev. W. Merle Smith, of the Central Presbyterian church, New York City, also spoke.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DEAD.

Ex-Mayor of New York Expired Suddenly. Born in Ohio—President Sent Telegram of Condolence.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L. Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at his residence in this city.

Mr. Strong took an active part in the present campaign, and it is said that his political labors combined with his attempts to regain supervision over his business affairs, in the face of impaired health, brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1821 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm soon grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters, and was president of the Central National bank.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—On hearing of the death of ex-Mayor Strong, President McKinley sent a telegram of condolence.

ROOSEVELT BROKE RECORD.

Made the Longest Campaign of Any Known Candidate—Finished His Tour in New York.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice President, completed last night at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States. In eight weeks he has visited 24 states of the union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all the other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States of all parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by William J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles through 37 counties and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said last night: "With a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt.

SOUND MONEY PARADE

Republican Demonstration In New York.

WERE ABOUT 140,000 MEN IN LINE.

Governor Roosevelt Rode at the Head and Later Reviewed the Marchers—Mrs. Roosevelt and Others Also on the Reviewing Stand.

New York, Nov. 3.—Thousands marched in the Republican Sound Money parade here today. Probably 140,000 men were in line.

The parade started from Worth street and Broadway about 10 o'clock. It was led by a platoon of mounted police. Behind the police platoon came Governor Roosevelt in a carriage, surrounded by members of the executive committee. Next was General McCook and staff, leading the parade proper. The place of honor was accorded to the Wholesale Dry Goods Men's Republican club, which had about 35,000 men in line. The bankers and brokers' division, 10,000 strong, followed the dry goods men.

General Molineux was grand marshal of the drug, paint and oil division, and his sons, Leslie and Cecil, acted as his staff officers.

A feature of the parade was the banners and bannerettes which were carried. Many unique designs had been devised, and they lent the necessary color and picturesqueness to make the parade attractive and interesting throughout.

The march was through Broadway to Waverley place, then through the Washington arch and up Fifth avenue to Fortieth street. Governor Roosevelt reviewed the parade from the stand just above the Dewey arch on the right hand side of the street. When the parade reached Madison square it was halted just long enough to allow the governor to take his place on the stand. Mrs. Roosevelt and her children had seats on the reviewing stand near the governor. Among the distinguished men who occupied places on the reviewing stand were Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, Benjamin B. Odell, ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, Franklin Murphy, John Proctor Clarke, General Francis V. Greene, General John H. Brooke, John A. McCall, Charles A. Schleren, Colonel A. S. Mills, Oscar S. Straus and Frederick S. Gibbs.

When the parade had passed the reviewing stand it continued up to Fortieth street and Fifth avenue in strict formation and at that point the disbandment began.

KNOW NO CLASS DISTINCTION.

President Writes a Letter, Being Unable to Review Parade.

New York, Nov. 3.—The following letter was given out by Secretary Drake, of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association: "Canton, O., Nov. 1, 1900.

"My Dear Mr. Strong—Public duty will not permit me to accept the invitation to review the parade of Nov. 3 of the organization composing the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money association. I recall the inspiring demonstration of four years ago, and rejoice that now, as then, with undiminished ranks, citizens of all parties are in line for national honor, public law, sound currency and industrial prosperity, and, as in 1896, are arrayed against those who are acting class hatred and discontent among the people of our happy country.

"We know no class distinctions in this fair land of ours. The American people will permit no stain to be put upon the American name.

"May those marching freemen and their patriotic allies throughout the country stamp out for all time in this public the evils of repudiation and dishonor.

"Very sincerely yours, "WILLIAM M'KINLEY. Honorable William L. Strong, President Business Men's Republican Sound Money Association, New York."

BRYAN'S CHICAGO TOUR.

Addressed Larger Crowds, on Second Day—Auditors Threatened to Lynch a Questioner.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—William Jennings Bryan's program in Chicago the second day comprehended 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of Thursday and Thursday night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel nad, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day. Two men in the audience asked, almost simultaneously, "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying, when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, however, but could not do so for some time owing to the uproar made by the crowd in expressing its resentment toward the inquisitor. The latter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's night meetings were held on the North, West, Southwest and South Sides of the city, the closing speech being made at midnight at State and Thirty-first streets.

EIGHT REPORTED MISSING.

Authorities Hunting for the Bookkeeper of Tarrant & Co.—Think He Knows of Explosives.

New York, Nov. 3.—The revised list of persons reported missing in connection with the Tarrant fire shows eight persons reported missing and not accounted for. Of these six are not known at the address given by the persons who reported them missing.

On the list is the name of Benjamin Moorhouse, a clerk for Tarrant & Co. The authorities persist in declaring their belief that he is alive and purposely keeping his whereabouts secret.

"We have detectives out after Moorhouse and expect to land him soon," said Assistant District Attorney Walsh.

Moorhouse's family and neighbors at Mount Clair, N. J., are convinced that he perished in the disaster.

The fire department's investigation of the explosion closed after the testimony of Louis Patterson and George Thompson, employees of Tarrant & Co., had been taken.

Thompson is bookkeeper for the firm, but he showed an ignorance of what was in storage in the upper floors and no important evidence was drawn from him. He said Moorhouse, the missing clerk, was the only man that knew just what material was in the building.

Dr. Lederle, health department analyst, who examined the seven drums found in the ruins, said that they had contained aniline oil, which is only a little less explosive than kerosene.

ALVORD LET GO AND REARRESTED.

His Bail Fixed at $150,000 For a Hearing Before U. S. Commissioner.

New York, Nov. 3.—City Magistrate Flammer discharged Cornelius L. Alvord, the defendant note taker of the First National bank, from custody. The magistrate said he was satisfied that he had no jurisdiction in the case. Alvord was allowed to leave the court room, but as soon as he reached the corridor he was rearrested by a United States marshal and taken before United States Commissioner Shields, accompanied by his counsel, Jacob F. Miller, and appeared to be very nervous as he faced the crowd which packed the commissioner's room. General Burnett, the United States district attorney, and his assistant, Mr. Baldwin, were present to represent the government. The prisoner, through his counsel, demanded an examination, which was set down for next Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Commissioner Shields fixed bail at $150,000, and in the absence of bondsmen Alvord was delivered over to the possession of United States Marshal Henkel and taken to the Ludlow street jail.

MAKING SAMPLE GOOD ROAD.

Hundreds Interested In Perfecting Thoronghfares Near Canonsburg, Pa.

Canonsburg, Pa., Nov. 3.—There are about 500 men inspecting the sample road making out in North Strabane township, and nearly 300 took dinner at the old Hill church, ladies serving it, the proceeds to go to the good roads fund. All stages of the making of macadam stone road were open for inspection and the interest was great. Julius Lemoyne, of Washington, and W. A. McBride, of Strabane, gave pertinent talks, the burden of both being a plea for better roads.

M. O. Eldridge, under whose direction the road is being built, gave an illustrated address on good roads and how to make them. The day was fine. About 15 men, including eight from jail, are employed on the new road.

THE CRUEL EMPRESS.

Had Kwang-Su's Favorite Wife Drowned.

OFFICIALS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Five Found Guilty at Pao Ting Fu of Participation in Murders of Missionaries—Empress Likely to Be Barred From Any Part In Governing China.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Official telegrams from Count Von Waldersee show that all the German troops have arrived in China and been distributed.

A special dispatch to the Hamburg Correspondent says:

"In a well situated in the imperial palace precincts in Peking was found the body of Emperor Kwang Su's favorite wife, Shen Ti, whom the empress dowager caused to be drowned before the flight of the court from the capital. The second favorite, Shing Fi, and a hundred ladies belonging to the imperial harem are prisoners in the hands of the allies."

A dispatch from Pao Ting Fu, dated Thursday, says:

"Telegraphic connection has been completed with Peking, entirely by the Germans. The railway from Pao Ting Fu to the capital is nearly completed. French detachments are guarding the line. The health of the German troops is steadily improving."

Another batch of letters from soldiers in China appears in a number of papers, among them the Hanover Courier, which editorially demands official statements with reference to the details given by the writers of the cruelties alleged to have been committed by German troops in China. This demand is warmly supported by the Freisinnige Zeitung.

TC PROVIDE FOR INDEMNITY.

Chinese Revenue May Be Increased. Other Points to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 3.—It was stated in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the question of indemnity, punishment, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz., first, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisors, from all participation in the Chinese movement, as they are to blame for the Boxer outrages, but no personal punishment of the woman is intended; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold, instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem, so that indemnities can be paid the powers; and third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung Li Yamen.

Foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body, and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer troubles.

CHINESE SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Accused of Being Connected With Murders of Missionaries.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 3.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Shung-on, the military commandant; General Kiu and two other officials.

Formal business was taken up by the delegates in the Fourth Presbyterian church, at Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, afterward.

Cecil Owen, of London, Canada. Addresses were made last evening by Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, of New York, and the Rev. William F. McDowell, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, of New York.

The Rev. W. Merle Smith, of the Central Presbyterian church, New York City, also spoke.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DEAD.

Ex-Mayor of New York Expired Suddenly. Born In Ohio—President Sent Telegram of Condolence.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L. Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at his residence in this city.

Mr. Strong took an active part in the present campaign, and it is said that his political labors combined with his attempts to regain supervision over his business affairs, in the face of impaired health, brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1821 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm soon grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters, and was president of the Central National bank.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—On hearing of the death of ex-Mayor Strong, President McKinley sent a telegram of condolence.

ROOSEVELT BROKE RECORD.

Made the Longest Campaign of Any Known Candidate—Finished His Tour In New York.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice President, completed last night at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States. In eight weeks he has visited 24 states of the union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,200 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all the other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States of all parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by William J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles through 37 counties and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said last night: "With a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt.

BRYAN'S CHICAGO TOUR.

Addressed Larger Crowds, on Second Day—Auditors Threatened to Lynch a Questioner.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—William Jennings Bryan's program in Chicago the second day comprehended 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of Thursday and Thursday night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel nad, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. The latter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's night meetings were held on the North, West, Southwest and South Sides of the city, the closing speech being made at midnight at State and Thirty-first streets.

EIGHT REPORTED MISSING.

Authorities Hunting for the Bookkeeper of Tarrant & Co.—Think He Knows of Explosives.

New York, Nov. 3.—The revised list of persons reported missing in connection with the Tarrant fire shows eight persons reported missing and not accounted for. Of these six are not known at the address given by the persons who reported them missing.

On the list is the name of Benjamin Moorhouse, a clerk for Tarrant & Co. The authorities persist in declaring their belief that he is alive and purposely keeping his whereabouts secret.

"We have detectives out after Moorhouse and expect to land him soon," said Assistant District Attorney Walsh.

Moorhouse's family and neighbors at Mount Clair, N. J., are convinced that he perished in the disaster.

The fire department's investigation of the explosion closed after the testimony of Louis Patterson and George Thompson, employees of Tarrant & Co., had been taken.

Thompson is bookkeeper for the firm, but he showed an ignorance of what was in storage in the upper floors and no important evidence was drawn from him. He said Moorhouse, the missing clerk, was the only man that knew just what material was in the building.

Dr. Lederle, health department analyst, who examined the seven drums found in the ruins, said that they had contained aniline oil, which is only a little less explosive than kerosene.

ALVORD LET GO AND REARRESTED.

Commissioner Shields fixed bail at $150,000, and in the absence of bondsmen Alvord was delivered over to the possession of United States Marshal Henkel and taken to the Ludlow street jail.

A dispatch from Pao Ting Fu, dated Thursday, says:

"Telegraphic connection has been completed with Peking, entirely by the Germans. The railway from Pao Ting Fu to the capital is nearly completed. French detachments are guarding the line. The health of the German troops is steadily improving."

Another batch of letters from soldiers in China appears in a number of papers, among them the Hanover Courier, which editorially demands official statements with reference to the details given by the writers of the cruelties alleged to have been committed by German troops in China. This demand is warmly supported by the Freisinnige Zeitung.

TC PROVIDE FOR INDEMNITY.

Chinese Revenue May Be Increased. Other Points to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 3.—It was stated in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the question of indemnity, punishment, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz., first, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisors, from all participation in the Chinese movement, as they are to blame for the Boxer outrages, but no personal punishment of the woman is intended; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold, instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem, so that indemnities can be paid the powers; and, third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung Li Yamen.

Foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body, and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer troubles.

CHINESE SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Accused of Being Connected With Murders of Missionaries.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 3.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Shung-on, the military commandant; General Kiu and two other officials.

THEOLOGICAL M. C. A. S.

Conference Met In Allegheny City and Opened With Prayer.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—The first business session of the triennial conference of the Young Men's Christian Association belonging to the theological seminaries in the United States and Canada opened with a prayer meeting at the Western Theological seminary, in Allegheny. Formal business was taken up by the delegates in the Fourth Presbyterian church, at Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, afterward.

The first feature was an address by Bishop J. M. Thoburn, of India. This was followed by addresses by the Rev. C. Armand Miller, of New York; Prof. Dyson Hague, of Wickliffe college, and President H. C. Weston, of Crozier Theological seminary.

Later there was a discussion as to the best method of furthering the work in seminaries. The discussion was led by Prof. Earl Taylor, of Chicago, and was followed by the Rev. Cecil Owen, of London, Canada. Addresses were made last evening by Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, of New York, and the Rev. William F. McDowell, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, of New York.

The Rev. W. Merle Smith, of the Central Presbyterian church, New York City, also spoke.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DEAD.

Ex-Mayor of New York Expired Suddenly. Born In Ohio—President Sent Telegram of Condolence.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L. Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at his residence in this city.

Mr. Strong took an active part in the present campaign, and it is said that his political labors combined with his attempts to regain supervision over his business affairs, in the face of impaired health, brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1821 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm soon grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters, and was president of the Central National bank.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—On hearing of the death of ex-Mayor Strong, President McKinley sent a telegram of condolence.

ROOSEVELT BROKE RECORD.

Made the Longest Campaign of Any Known Candidate—Finished His Tour In New York.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice President, completed last night at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States. In eight weeks he has visited 24 states of the union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all the other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States of all parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by William J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles through 37 counties and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said last night: "With a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt.

STATE CANDIDATES.

Five Men on the Republican Ticket.

ALL ARE GOOD MEN AND TRUE.

Brief Biographies of the Candidates, The Men Who Uphold the Standard of Republicanism in the Buckeye State This Year.

Below are given brief biographies of the five Republican candidates on the Ohio state ticket this year. All, except Mr. Laylin, the head of the ticket, are candidates for re-election:

Secretary of State.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, Republican candidate for secretary of state, was born in Norwalk, Huron county. He graduated from that city's high school in 1867. Two years later he was elected to the superintendency of the Bellevue public schools, which position he held for six years. He began the study of the law, and was admitted to the bar in 1876. He was city clerk of Norwalk for two years; member of the Huron county board of school examiners for 12 years, and president of the Norwalk city board of examiners three years. In 1879 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Huron county, which position he held for seven years. His legislative experience began in 1887, when he was elected to the house. In 1889 he was re-elected. He was the choice of his Republican colleagues for the speakership, and received the unanimous support of the Republican minority. In 1891 he received his third nomination as representative, the honor being given unanimously. In the organization of the house there was an exciting contest for the speakership between Mr. Laylin and Hon. J. F. McGrew of Clark county, which Mr. Laylin won. He made an admirable presiding officer, as was to have been expected of a man of his ability, tact and discretion. Mr. Laylin is a typical representative, in brains and loyalty to party and country, and in high character, of the intelligent freemen who have made the Western Reserve noted in the politics of Ohio and the nation.

The Supreme Bench.

The present chief justice of the supreme court of Ohio, Hon. John A. Shauck, is a candidate for re-election, and will undoubtedly receive this deserved endorsement. Judge Shauck spent his childhood on a farm in Richland county; was a student at Otterbein university when the civil war began. He enlisted in the One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, serving with honor in the Army of the Potomac. He then studied law at the University of Michigan, Ann

Candidate for Supreme Judge. Arbor, and began practice in Kansas City. Later he returned to Ohio and entered into partnership with Judge Boltin at Dayton. He was elected judge of the Southern district circuit in 1888, his associate being Hon. Marshall J. Williams and Hon. Gilbert H. Stewart. In 1890 he was re-elected for a term of six years, and was elevated to the supreme bench in 1894. His mind is essentially judicial, clear, incisive, analytical, and to perceive and grasp the subtle and controlling points of a case. His decisions are models of conciseness, precision and force, and are accepted with unanimity.

State School Commissioner.

Hon. Lewis C. Bonebrake is the Republican candidate for state school commissioner, he receiving the honor of an unanimous renomination at the

Mr. Bonebrake is himself a product of the Ohio common schools, and has long been recognized as one of the leading educators of the state. He was born in Blendon township, Franklin county, Aug. 23, 1859. His early education was obtained in a district school, and through his own efforts he supplemented this by a college course, graduating at Otterbein university, Westerville, in 1882. He at once took up school work, and successfully superintended the public schools of Sparta, Elmore, Athens and Mt. Vernon. He was serving his ninth year in the latter city when he was nominated and elected commissioner in 1897. He has been a most energetic and efficient official. During the two years and three months he has been in office he has made over three hundred official visits throughout Ohio, and has delivered educational addresses in every county of the state. He has also thoroughly revised the official blanks used in the commissioner's office, for which he received a formal vote of thanks from the association of county auditors of Ohio. His system of blanks is so excellent that it has been adopted by the United States government for use in the schools of Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. The importance of the system may be recognized from the fact that $14,000,000 are expended for the public schools in the state of Ohio every year, and the best interests of the public can be conserved by the re-election of the present efficient commissioner.

Dairy Commissioner.

Hon. Joseph E. Blackburn, candidate for re-election as dairy and food commissioner, was born in Belmont county June 30, 1860. After a common school course, he went to work in the Belmont glass works. Here he rose step by step until he became foreman of the factory. He was active in organizing the Moldmakers' union, and he later succeeded in securing the admission of this union into the American Flint Glass Workers' union. He then took a course in pharmacy at Ohio Normal university, Ada; receiving his degree of Ph. G. In 1887 he embarked in the HON. J. D. BLACKBURN.

The next year he received the nomination for the office of dairy and food commissioner, and was elected. The strong fight that he made against the sale of low grade, adulterated sugars and food stuffs attracted much attention and made him the focus of the assaults of all interested in these adulterations. He was elected for a second term in 1898, and has carried forward the reforms he inaugurated without faltering. He has insisted that dealers shall sell goods for what they are, and has waged relentless war on those who attempted to cheat and deceive. He now comes before the people for their endorsement of his course in the matter.

Board of Public Works.

Hon. Charles A. Goddard, Republican candidate for re-election to the board of public works, was born in Norwich, Vt., May 25, 1841. He was reared on a farm and obtained his education in the excellent schools of the Green Mountain state. He served through the civil war as a member of company B, Sixth Vermont volunteers. At the end of the conflict he came to

HON. C. A. GODDARD.

Candidate for Board of Public Works. Ohio and settled down to farm life in Scioto county. Here he served two terms as county commissioner. In September, 1887, Mr. Goddard was appointed superintendent of the Southern division of the Ohio canal. His excellent judgment and his intuitive grasp of details made him a prime favorite with the people along the line of the canal and with all doing business thereon. As a member of the board of public works he has proved a most efficient officer, and his renomination is a deserved tribute to his worth.

EUROPE WANTS BRYAN.

Hoping For His Election to the Presidency.

WE ARE HURTING HER EXPORTS.

Within the Past Four Years the United States Have Taken Enormous Trade From Europe—Bryan's Triumph Would Change This.

The men of affairs in Europe, the men engaged in export trade, the financiers and bankers, are all hoping for the election of Bryan on Nov. 6. So are the workmen of Europe—those at least who are intelligent enough to understand the drift of events.

While in the diplomatic way the great commercial nations of Europe are on terms of amity with the United States, industrially and commercially they are our enemies.

The reason is plain. The industrial center of the world has shifted westward across the Atlantic to the United States within the past four years. In that time we have developed an enormous export trade in manufactured products. Before that, the bulk of our exports consisted of raw materials—grain and foodstuffs, cotton and petroleum. But the enormous development of our exports in manufactured products within the past four years has injured the commerce of all Europe, and especially of Great Britain, Germany, France and Belgium.

We have, for the first time in our history, become a formidable competitor with them in the world's markets. Their industries and their commerce have, therefore, been injured. Added to this is the fact that, as a result of our unexampled prosperity, the United States has become piteous in money, and has, within four years, become Europe's creditor instead of her debtor.

Consequently European nations hope for the election of Bryan, because they believe his success will change all this. They know he is a supporter of free trade, and hope, if he be elected, that the markets of this country shall be thrown open to the products of their cheap labor. They remember the effect of the Wilson bill on our industries

Does not warm except through combustion. Food does not nourish except through digestion. You may as well hug a coal pile to get warm as expect to get nourishment out of food which you cannot digest. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the body to assimilate food and so put on sound flesh and develop strong muscle.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1205 1/2 Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken down with what our physicians said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being as I think, cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper or 31 stamps for cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

and our export trade, and they desire a repetition of it. Should Bryan win, they hope to regain the trade they have lost to us.

In addition to this European financiers hope for his election, because they know that he would force silver payments of obligations. The men who owe the millions of money borrowed in the United States within the past four years would like nothing better than to repay in silver the debts contracted on a gold basis, thus saving 50 per cent of their obligations.

These facts are certified to by Hon. Edward D. Winslow, the United States consul general at Stockholm, Sweden, who has just returned to America for a brief visit. He is fully convinced, from personal observation, that the above statements are absolute facts. Europe desires Bryan's election because it will be a detriment to American industry and commerce, and work to European interests. The voters of the United States, especially the workmen, should consider this point very carefully.

The factory whistles too derision at Bryanism every morning.

A vote for Bryan is a vote to reopen the free soup-houses.

The next year he received the nomination for the office of dairy and food commissioner, and was elected. The strong fight that he made against the sale of low grade, adulterated sugars and food stuffs attracted much attention and made him the focus of the assaults of all interested in these adulterations. #### Board of Public Works.

Hon. Charles A. Goddard, Republican candidate for re-election to the board of public works, was born in Norwich, Vt., May 25, 1841. He was reared on a farm and obtained his education in the excellent schools of the Green Mountain state. He served through the civil war as a member of company B, Sixth Vermont volunteers. At the end of the conflict he came to

In September, 1887, Mr. Goddard was appointed superintendent of the Southern division of the Ohio canal. His excellent judgment and his intuitive grasp of details made him a prime favorite with the people along the line of the canal and with all doing business thereon. As a member of the board of public works he has proved a most efficient officer, and his renomination is a deserved tribute to his worth.

EUROPE WANTS BRYAN.

Hoping For His Election to the Presidency.

WE ARE HURTING HER EXPORTS.

Within the Past Four Years the United States Have Taken Enormous Trade From Europe—Bryan's Triumph Would Change This.

The men of affairs in Europe, the men engaged in export trade, the financiers and bankers, are all hoping for the election of Bryan on Nov. 6. So are the workmen of Europe—those at least who are intelligent enough to understand the drift of events.

While in the diplomatic way the great commercial nations of Europe are on terms of amity with the United States, industrially and commercially they are our enemies.

The reason is plain. The industrial center of the world has shifted westward across the Atlantic to the United States within the past four years. In that time we have developed an enormous export trade in manufactured products. Before that, the bulk of our exports consisted of raw materials—grain and foodstuffs, cotton and petroleum. But the enormous development of our exports in manufactured products within the past four years has injured the commerce of all Europe, and especially of Great Britain, Germany, France and Belgium.

We have, for the first time in our history, become a formidable competitor with them in the world's markets. Their industries and their commerce have, therefore, been injured. Added to this is the fact that, as a result of our unexampled prosperity, the United States has become plementous in money, and has, within four years, become Europe's creditor instead of her debtor.

Consequently European nations hope for the election of Bryan, because they believe his success will change all this. They know he is a supporter of free trade, and hope, if he be elected, that the markets of this country shall be thrown open to the products of their cheap labor. They remember the effect of the Wilson bill on our industries

I wrote you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. and our export trade, and they desire a repetition of it. Should Bryan win, they hope to regain the trade they have lost to us.

In addition to this European financiers hope for his election, because they know that he would force silver payments of obligations. The men who owe the millions of money borrowed in the United States within the past four years would like nothing better than to repay in silver the debts contracted on a gold basis, thus saving 50 per cent of their obligations.

These facts are certified to by Hon. Edward D. Winslow, the United States consul general at Stockholm, Sweden, who has just returned to America for a brief visit. He is fully convinced, from personal observation, that the above statements are absolute facts. Europe desires Bryan's election because it will be a detriment to American industry and commerce, and work to European interests. The voters of the United States, especially the workmen, should consider this point very carefully.

STATE CANDIDATES.

Five Men on the Republican Ticket.

ALL ARE GOOD MEN AND TRUE.

Brief Biographies of the Candidates. The Men Who Uphold the Standard of Republicanism in the Buckeye State This Year.

Below are given brief biographies of the five Republican candidates on the Ohio state ticket this year. All, except Mr. Laylin, the head of the ticket, are candidates for re-election:

Secretary of State.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, Republican candidate for secretary of state, was born in Norwalk, Huron county. He graduated from that city's high school in 1867. Two years later he was elected to the superintendency of the Bellevue public schools, which position he held for six years. He began the study of the law, and was admitted to the bar in 1876. He was city clerk of Norwalk for two years; member of the Huron county board of school examiners for 12 years, and president of the Norwalk city board of examiners three years. In 1879 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Huron county, which position he held for seven years. His legislative experience began in 1887, when he was elected to the house. In 1889 he was re-elected. He was the choice of his Republican colleagues for the speakership, and received the unanimous support of the Republican minority. In 1891 he received his third nomination as representative, the honor being given unanimously. In the organization of the house there was an exciting contest for the speakership between Mr. Laylin and Hon. J. F. McGrew of Clark county, which Mr. Laylin won. He made an admirable presiding officer, as was to have been expected of a man of his ability, tact and discretion. Mr. Laylin is a typical representative, in brains and loyalty to party and country, and in high character, of the intelligent freemen who have made the Western Reserve noted in the politics of Ohio and the nation.

The Supreme Bench.

The present chief justice of the supreme court of Ohio, Hon. John A. Shauck, is a candidate for re-election, and will undoubtedly receive this deserved endorsement. Judge Shauck spent his childhood on a farm in Richland county; was a student at Otterbein university when the civil war began. He enlisted in the One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, serving with honor in the Army of the Potomac. He then studied law at the University of Michigan, Ann

HON. JOHN A. SHAUCK.

Candidate for Supreme Judge. Arbor, and began practice in Kansas City. Later he returned to Ohio and entered into partnership with Judge Boltin at Dayton. He was elected judge of the Sixth judicial circuit in 1888, his associate being Hon. Marshall J. Williams. In 1890 he was re-elected for a term of six years, and was elevated to the supreme bench in 1894. His mind is essentially judicial, clear, incisive, analytical, and to perceive and grasp the salient controlling points of a case. His decisions are models of conciseness, and are forceful and are accepted with unanimity.

State School Commissioner.

Hon. Lewis C. Bonebrake is the publican candidate for state school commissioner, he receiving the honor of an unanimous renomination at the

HON. L. D. BONEBRAKE.

Candidate for State School Commissioner. Hands of the state convention. Mr. Bonebrake is himself a product of the Ohio common schools, and has long been recognized as one of the leading educators of the state. He was born in Blendon township, Franklin county, Aug. 23, 1859. His early education was obtained in a district school, and through his own efforts he supplemented this by a college course, graduating at Otterbein university, Westerville, in 1882. He at once took up school work, and successfully superintended the public schools of Sparta, Elmore, Athens and Mt. Vernon. He was serving his ninth year in the latter city when he was nominated and elected commissioner in 1897. He has been a most energetic and efficient official. During the two years and three months he has been in office he has made over three hundred official visits throughout Ohio, and has delivered educational addresses in every county of the state. He has also thoroughly revised the official blanks used in the commissioner's office, for which he received a formal vote of thanks from the association of county auditors of Ohio. His system of blanks is so excellent that it has been adopted by the United States government for use in the schools of Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. The importance of the system may be recognized from the fact that $14,000,000 are expended for the public schools in the state of Ohio every year, and the best interests of the public can be conserved by the re-election of the present efficient commissioner.

Dairy Commissioner.

Hon. Joseph E. Blackburn, candidate for re-election as dairy and food commissioner, was born in Belmont county June 30, 1860. After a common school course, he went to work in the Belmont glass works. Here he rose step by step until he became foreman of the factory. He was active in organizing the Moldmakers' union, and he later succeeded in securing the admission of this union into the American Flint Glass Workers' union. He then took a course in pharmacy at Ohio Normal university, Ada, receiving his degree of Ph. G. In 1887 he embarked in the

BUSINESS HELD BACK.

Longing For Free Field to Leap Forward—Encouraging Signs In Iron Business.

New York, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says in part:

The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force and closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of concentrating operations at more advantageous points and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The weather in some sections has favored business, but at New York has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent in bank clearings here as compared with last year, though the week shows a gain of 20.3 per cent over 1898.

Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer and grey forge at Pittsburg shows that the recent increase in activity of finished forms has at last effected the market for raw material. Improvement in domestic over a year ago, while the increase in agricultural products was only 9.5 per cent, this year increase being entirely due to higher prices of cotton as compared with last year. The outlook is for an aggregate export of manufactured goods this year of at least $440,000,000, a total never heretofore approached. A curious feature is that most of that increase in import trade for the nine months is in products designed to be used by American manufacturers, so the anomaly is presented of American manufacturers being the largest importers of foreign products.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,612,421 bushels, against 4,932,978 last week, 3,046,856 in the corresponding week of 1899; 6,773,643 in 1898; 5,590,498 in 1897, and 3,472,979 in 1896. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 63,856,564 bushels, against 72,589,016 last season, and 73,845,523 in 1898-99. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,920,110, against 3,365,651 last week; 4,503,425 in this week a year ago; 3,566,640 in 1898; 2,199,556 in 1897 and 2,247,643 in 1896.

Failures for the week in the United States number 165, as against 161 last week; 174 in this week a year ago; 183 in 1898 and 223 in 1897 and 1896. Canadian failures number 16 against 31 last week, 21 in 1899, 32 in 1898, 34 in 1897 and 50 in 1896.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Developments In Money Market Justified Precautionary Attitude of Some.

New York, Nov. 3.—The developments in the money market Friday served fully to justify the precautionary attitude assumed by influential interests toward the speculation during the present week. Had the borrowing with which to hold stocks on margin proceeded this week with the headlong eagerness that was shown last week, the effect of Friday's flurry in call loans inevitably would have been much aggravated. The hardships of borrowers were increased by the additional strictness of lenders with regard to collateral, the rate being 1 per cent higher for loans where there was admixture of industrial securities than where they were all railroads.

The sub-treasury was debtor at the clearing house Friday to the amount of $2,392,771 on account of government interest payments. The feature of the preliminary estimates of the week's cash changes is the reversal shown in the current of the money movement with the interior. The banks have gained on the interior movement by express to the extent of probably near half a million dollars. Not until Friday, when $200,000 was deposited at the sub-treasury for transfer to Chicago, has there been any transfer to the interior through that medium. As a consequence of this and the large payments by the sub-treasury on account of gold deposits at Pacific coast points, the official statement of this week's sub-treasury operations shows a gain by the banks of $963,000. But it must be remembered that this official statement includes a payment on last Friday of checks to the amount of $3,000,000 for Australian gold deposited with the government at San Francisco.

New York, Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman Horner Green, a former negro slave, died in the almshouse at Hempstead, L. I., at the reputed age of 123 years.

Organized a Union.

Organizer J. E. Anderson was in Beaver Falls last night, where he organized the New Brighton and Beaver Falls retail clerks. The organization started with 40 charter members and at the installation, which will take place in about two weeks, the membership will be increased to 150.

Negro Sentenced For Life.

New York, Nov. 3.—Arthur Harris, the negro who stabbed Policeman Robert L. Thorpe to death on Aug. 12, was sentenced to life imprisonment. The murder of Thorpe was the cause of serious race riots in this city.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many avocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it.

BUSINESS HELD BACK.

Longing For Free Field to Leap Forward—Encouraging Signs in Iron Business.

New York, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says in part:

The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force and closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of concentrating operations at more advantageous points and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The weather in some sections has favored business, but at New York has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent in bank clearings here as compared with last year, though the week shows a gain of 20.3 per cent over 1908.

Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer and grey forge at Pittsburg shows that the recent increase in activity of finished forms has at last effected the market for raw material. Improvement in domestic over a year ago, while the increase in agricultural products was only 9.5 per cent, this latter increase being entirely due to higher prices of cotton as compared with last year. The outlook is for an aggregate export of manufactured goods this year of at least $440,000,000, a total never heretofore approached. A curious feature is that most of that increase in import trade for the nine months is in products designed to be used by American manufacturers, so the anomaly is presented of American manufacturers being the largest importers of foreign products.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,612,421 bushels, against 4,932,978 last week, 3,046,856 in the corresponding week of 1909; 6,773,643 in 1908; 5,590,498 in 1907, and 3,472,979 in 1906. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 63,856,564 bushels, against 72,589,016 last season, and 73,845,523 in 1908-09. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,920,110, against 3,365,651 last week; 4,503,425 in this week a year ago; 3,566,640 in 1908; 2,199,556 in 1907 and 2,247,643 in 1906.

Failures for the week in the United States number 165, as against 161 last week; 174 in this week a year ago; 183 in 1908 and 223 in 1907 and 1896. Canadian failures number 16 against 31 last week, 21 in 1909, 32 in 1908, 34 in 1907 and 50 in 1906.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Developments in Money Market Justified Precautionary Attitude of Some.

New York, Nov. 3.—The developments in the money market Friday served fully to justify the precautionary attitude assumed by influential interests toward the speculation during the present week. Had the borrowing with which to hold stocks on margin proceeded this week with the headlong eagerness that was shown last week, the effect of Friday's flurry in call loans inevitably would have been much aggravated. The hardships of borrowers were increased by the additional strictness of lenders with regard to collateral, the rate being 1 per cent higher for loans where there was admixture of industrial securities than where they were all railroads.

The sub-treasury was debtor at the clearing house Friday to the amount of $2,392,771 on account of government interest payments. The feature of the preliminary estimates of the week's cash changes is the reversal shown in the current of the money movement with the interior. The banks have gained on the interior movement by express to the extent of probably near half a million dollars. Not until Friday, when $200,000 was deposited at the sub-treasury for transfer to Chicago, has there been any transfer to the interior through that medium. As a consequence of this and the large payments by the sub-treasury on account of gold deposits at Pacific coast points, the official statement of this week's treasury operations shows a gain by the banks of $963,000. But it must be remembered that this official statement includes a payment on last Friday of checks to the amount of $3,000,000 for Australian gold deposited with the government at San Francisco.

New York, Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman Horner Green, a former negro slave, died in the almshouse at Hempstead, L. I., at the reputed age of 123 years.

Organized a Union.

Organizer J. E. Anderson was in Beaver Falls last night, where he organized the New Brighton and Beaver Falls retail clerks. The organization started with 40 charter members and at the installation, which will take place in about two weeks, the membership will be increased to 150.

Negro Sentenced For Life.

New York, Nov. 3.—Arthur Harris, the negro who stabbed Policeman Robert L. Thorpe to death on Aug. 12, was sentenced to life imprisonment. The murder of Thorpe was the cause of serious race riots in the city.

Health and Beauty

For generations women have been taught that "beauty is only skin deep," but, like many proverbs, that will not stand. Beauty is blood deep. There can be no beauty without health. Our grandmothers lived closer to nature than we do, and they were so sheltered by their home life that health and beauty were theirs naturally. Skin foods, freckle lotions and face bleaches were unknown commodities. But there has been a great change in the life of women since then. With broader education and larger opportunities, she has developed mentally at the expense of her health. From the quiet duties of home she has gone forth until now we find her in many vocations of life, which prove too great a tax on her vitality. How sad it is to see the cheek robbed of its color and the eye of its fire. These symptoms nearly always show derangements in the delicate feminine organism. They don't call for bleaches or paints or powders, but for a remedy that will make the afflicted organs strong and well. Wine of Cardui is just such a remedy. Women broken in health and spirit have been made healthy and happy by this Wine. No one should give up to the "blues" until this reliable remedy has been tried. It has proven a blessing to other women and will not disappoint you. It brings that buoyancy of spirit, elasticity of step and lightness of heart which is the corner stone of beauty. A healthy woman is always beautiful.

Westville, February 4, 1900.

I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it.

BUSINESS HELD BACK.

Longing For Free Field to Leap Forward—Encouraging Signs in Iron Business.

New York, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says in part:

The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force and closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of concentrating operations at more advantageous points and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The weather in some sections has favored business, but at New York has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent in bank clearings here as compared with last year, though the week shows a gain of 20.3 per cent over 1898.

Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer and grey forge at Pittsburg shows that the recent increase in activity of finished forms has at last effected the market for raw material. Improvement in domestic over a year ago, while the increase in agricultural products was only 9.5 per cent, this later increase being entirely due to higher prices of cotton as compared with last year. The outlook is for an aggregate export of manufactured goods this year of at least $440,000,000, a total never heretofore approached. A curious feature is that most of that increase in import trade for the nine months is in products designed to be used by American manufacturers, so the anomaly is presented of American manufacturers being the largest importers of foreign products.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,612,421 bushels, against 4,932,978 last week, 3,046,856 in the corresponding week of 1899; 6,773,643 in 1898; 5,590,498 in 1897, and 3,472,979 in 1896. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 63,856,564 bushels, against 72,589,016 last season, and 73,845,523 in 1898-99. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,920,110, against 3,365,651 last week; 4,503,425 in this week a year ago; 3,566,640 in 1898; 2,199,550 in 1897 and 2,247,643 in 1896.

Failures for the week in the United States number 165, as against 161 last week; 174 in this week a year ago; 183 in 1898 and 223 in 1897 and 1896. Canadian failures number 16 against 31 last week, 21 in 1899, 32 in 1898, 34 in 1897 and 50 in 1896.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Developments in Money Market Justified Precautionary Attitude of Some.

New York, Nov. 3.—The developments in the money market Friday served fully to justify the precautionary attitude assumed by influential interests toward the speculation during the present week. Had the borrowing with which to hold stocks on margin proceeded this week with the headlong eagerness that was shown last week, the effect of Friday's flurry in call loans inevitably would have been much aggravated. The hardships of borrowers were increased by the additional strictness of lenders with regard to collateral, the rate being 1 per cent higher for loans where there was admixture of industrial securities than where they were all railroads.

The sub-treasury was debtor at the clearing house Friday to the amount of $2,392,771 on account of government interest payments. The feature of the preliminary estimates of the week's cash changes is the reversal shown in the current of the money movement with the interior. The banks have gained on the interior movement by express to the extent of probably near half a million dollars. Not until Friday, when $200,000 was deposited at the sub-treasury for transfer to Chicago, has there been any transfer to the interior through that medium. As a consequence of this and the large payments by the sub-treasury on account of gold deposits at Pacific coast points, the official statement of this week's treasury operations shows a gain by the banks of $903,000. But it must be remembered that this official statement includes a payment on last Friday of checks to the amount of $3,000,000 for Australian gold deposited with the government at San Francisco.

New York, Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman, a former negro slave, died in the almshouse at Hempstead, L. I., at the reputed age of 123 years.

Organized a Union.

Organizer J. E. Anderson was in Beaver Falls last night, where he organized the New Brighton and Beaver Falls retail clerks. The organization started with 40 charter members and at the installation, which will take place in about two weeks, the membership will be increased to 150.

Negro Sentenced For Life.

New York, Nov. 3.—Arthur Harris, the negro who stabbed Policeman Robert L. Thorpe to death on Aug. 12, was sentenced to life imprisonment. The murder of Thorpe was the cause of serious race riots in this city.

A CREDIT TO THE REPUBLICANS

Pandemonium Reigned Supreme During the Evening and Red Fire Was In Profusion.

Last night was Republican night in East Liverpool, and there was no lack of enthusiasm, and a person not acquainted with the situation would have been firmly convinced that McKinley and Roosevelt were the only presidential candidates.

The small boys started the jollification early in the day and almost blew their lungs out on tin horns. When evening arrived the men joined in the sport and pandemonium reigned. Yellow ribbon was predominant, and long before the parade started the streets were packed with merry people eager to add their voices in the cheers for McKinley and Roosevelt.

When the Sewickley marching club, headed by a drum corps and brass band, arrived shortly after 7 o'clock and marched up Broadway to Republican headquarters they were greeted by vociferous cheering and the red fire was burned like paper. When they arrived at the headquarters they were served with luncheon and hot coffee. A short time later the St. Clair township delegation headed by the Clarkson brass band arrived and were given an enthusiastic welcome.

They carried a banner bearing the inscription "St. Clair is all O. K."

A long wait was had until the Salineville delegation arrived, but it was well worth waiting for, as when their special train rolled in it brought 300 enthusiastic McKinley men and a brass band.

No time was lost in forming the parade and Chief Marshal Surles and his aides worked like trojans and about 8:30 the parade moved out without a semblance of confusion in the following order:

Platoon of Police.
Haines' Band.
Mounted Staff.
Speakers in Carriages.
Sewickley Troop Band and Drum Corps.
Sewickley Republican Club.
Salineville Band.
Salineville McKinley Club.
Lime Kiln Club, East Liverpool.
Local Ward Delegates.
Irondale Band.
Irondale Delegations.
Manley's Band.
Rough Riders.
Clarkson Band.
Clarkson Rough Riders.
Local Rough Riders.
Floats.

The garbage wagon brought up the rear of the procession with the following very appropriate inscription: "Under Grover our garbage we ate, under Mac we have it to cremate."

The following route of procession was observed:

Down East Market to Sixth, down Sixth to Monroe, Monroe to Fifth, Fifth to Washington, Washington to Fourth, Fourth to Jackson, Jackson to Third, Third to Union, Union to Second, to foot of Second and counter-march, back Second to Broadway,

Broadway to Cook, Cook to Walnut, Walnut to Forest, Forest to Sixth, Sixth to Diamond, Diamond to Fourth, Fourth to Broadway and thence to wigwam.

As the parade went down Sixth street it was one mass of red fire, while on every hand sky rockets and Roman candles were shot off in profusion. On every street there was a profusion of red fire and it is seldom the East Liverpool people are permitted to witness a sight so beautiful.

A careful estimate places at least 2,000 men in line.

The decorations were very handsome and elaborate, but the office of Attorney G. Y. Travis and City Treasurer Herbert on Sixth street easily led. Their front was a profusion of bunting, flags and decorated paper, while pictures of McKinley were numerous. Right above their office in the same building the Belmont club had made elaborate decorations and had suspended on a pole a full dinner pail and an empty dinner pail. The Ohio Valley Gas office was beautifully decorated, while the residence of Colonel John N. Taylor was a mass of bunting and flags. The Phoenix club rooms were also covered with bunting and flags, while the residence of Attorney John M. McGarry presented one of the prettiest pictures of the evening.

When the parade reached his home red fire was burning from both corners of every window in the front of the house. C. A. Smith's office was decorated with flags and bunting and was one of the handsomest of the evening.

All along the line of procession the decorations were very handsome, while it is probable there never was as much red fire burned in one evening.

The parade reached the wigwam a few minutes before 10 o'clock, but the tent was packed when it got there.

The meeting at the wigwam was commenced almost immediately after the parade and was attended by a large and enthusiastic crowd.

George H. Owen, chairman of the local committee, introduced Colonel Phillips, Meigs county, who sang a campaign song and the following vice presidents were called:

W. A. Thompson, George Smith, Captain W. F. Dawson, James Finley, R. J. Marshall, J. C. Allison, Samuel Beal, M. M. Huston, T. O. Timmons, Harry Gaston, Prof. Weaver, James Jemison, A. Burlingame, T. B. Murphy, William Collock, E. H. Huntsman, S. B. Job Dawson, Dr. W. R. Charles Dawson.

Colonel Hill was chosen chairman of the meeting and in a few well chosen words introduced the speaker of the evening, T. E. Murphy, of Johnstown, Pa., who spoke for over an hour.

To the Ex-Union Soldiers.

By W. L. CURRY, Manager of Soldiers' Home.

On the eve of a national election which involves not only the election of state officials, but members of congress on whom will rest the responsibility of enacting important laws and a president, it is well for every veteran, whatever ticket he may vote, to compare the record of the Republican and Democratic parties as to pension legislation and other matters in which every ex-union soldier is very much interested.

The Republican party has always been the friend of the soldier. It is responsible for the liberal pension laws which have been enacted in his behalf, and for the just and fair rulings which have characterized the application of those laws while the Republican party is in power. Nearly four billion dollars have been distributed to the ex-soldiers under the pension laws now on the statute books, millions of people have been protected from want, and hundreds of thousands of brave and loyal men have been shielded in their declining years from the absolute destitution, want and suffering which their enfeebled condition, by reason of service to the nation, would have brought, save for the generous legislation which the Republican party has enacted in their behalf.

The Republican party is responsible and makes no denial of its responsibility for the present pension system of the United States, there is but one way for such reform; that is by law. Can you expect any liberal pension legislation by the Democratic party with such a record as it has made in congress? Let us see! Here is the record, read and then reflect:

In 1878 a bill was passed by the lower house of congress repealing all limitations of time in which applications for arrears of pensions should be made. Upon this the vote stood:

Democrats for the bill..... 48
Democrats against the bill..... 61
Republicans for the bill..... 116
Republicans against the bill..... None

Subsequently a bill increasing the pensions of widows from $8 to $12 was voted on with the following results:

Democrats for the bill..... 80
Democrats against the bill..... 66
Republicans for the bill..... 118
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Amputation bill—Passed Aug. 4, 1886:

Democrats for the bill..... 75
Democrats against the bill..... 51
Republicans for the bill..... 91
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Widows' Arrears Bill—(Giving arrears of pension, from the death of their husbands, to widows entitled to pensions.) Passed the senate by the following vote:

Democrats for the bill..... 1
Democrats against the bill..... 20
Republicans for the bill..... 22
Republicans against the bill..... None

The Disability Pension bill—(Gives pension to all disabled soldiers and to dependent parents and children.) Passed June, 1890:

Democrats for the bill..... 28
Democrats against the bill..... 56
Republicans for the bill..... 117
Republicans against the bill..... None

Same bill in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 3
Democrats against the bill..... 18
Republicans for the bill..... 31
Republicans against the bill..... None

In the Forty-ninth congress a Dependent Pension bill was voted on in the senate with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 7
Democrats against the bill..... 14

Republicans for the bill..... 27

Republicans against the bill..... None

In the same congress a similar bill was voted upon in the house of representatives, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 66

Democrats against the bill..... 76

Republicans for the bill..... 114

Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was vetoed by President Cleveland. An effort was made in the lower house to pass the bill over the veto, with the following result:

Democrats for the bill..... 37

Democrats against the bill..... 125

Republicans for the bill..... 138

Republicans against the bill..... None

Showing that 29 Democrats who had originally voted for the bill hastened to avail themselves of the opportunity afforded by the president's veto to vote against it, thus, testifying their real sentiments, while 20 others who had dodged the first vote came up promptly to the support of the veto.

The vote upon which the Dependent Pension Bill was finally passed by the Republican congress, of which Tom Reed was speaker, stood as follows in the senate:

Democrats for the bill..... 10

Democrats against the bill..... 12

Republicans for the bill..... 32

Republicans against the bill..... None

In the lower house it was sought to take up and pass the bill promptly, but the Democrats solidly opposed a motion to suspend the rules for that purpose, and the effort failed. Shortly after this, however, a second effort met with success, the vote standing thus:

Democrats for the bill..... 38

Democrats against the bill..... 71

Republicans for the bill..... 141

Republicans against the bill..... None

This bill was, as the old soldiers well know, promptly approved by President Harrison.

The next pension legislation of importance was the bill to pension prisoners of war, and giving them each $2 for every day they were held by the confederates.

When it came up in the lower house the following vote was had:

Democrats for the bill..... 24

Democrats against the bill..... 78

Republicans for the bill..... 119

Republicans against the bill..... None

To sum up, the following gives the totals of 14 votes in congress upon the most important of the various pension measures presented since the war, viz:

Democrats for the bills..... 417

Democrats against the bills..... 648

Republicans for the bills..... 1,066

Republicans against the bills..... None

The following statement, prepared from official records, shows the number of pension bills to which each president since the war has refused his signature:

Lincoln ..... None

Johnson ..... None

Grant ..... 5

Hayes ..... None

Garfield ..... None

Arthur ..... None

Cleveland ..... 524

Harrison ..... None

McKinley ..... None

Comment is unnecessary to enable the old soldier to decide which party is most inclined to deal justly and liberally with him.

Every pension law passed by congress was passed by Republican votes. Every pension bill defeated has been defeated by Democratic votes; and every pension bill vetoed, 529 in number, was vetoed by a Democratic president, except five.

Can an ex-union soldier expect any favors of a party with such a record?

No. Will you vote for a man for congress who musters and votes with such a party? No.

Then let us rally under the banner of the grand old party which carried the war in which we fought, for it is the duty of every true Republican to use all honorable means to bring every veteran into line during the campaign.

Laws enacted by the Republican legislature of Ohio in the interest of ex-soldiers.

The legislature of Ohio has passed many laws for the benefit of the ex-soldiers since the war of the rebellion, and all of these laws were passed by a Republican legislature, among which are the following:

Veteran Bounty.

The legislature passed a law soon after the close of the war of the rebellion, granting a veteran bounty of $100 to all soldiers who served two years in the same organization and then re-enlisted for three years more, or during the war. This law was passed April 16, 1867.

Burial of Soldiers.

A law was passed providing for the burial of all ex-union soldiers, their mothers, wives or widows, and army nurses, the expense to be paid by the township in which they resided.

Soldiers' Home.

A law for the erection of a soldiers' home at Sandusky, Ohio, which has now become one of the best and most prominent homes for disabled soldiers in the United States.

Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphans Home.

Another law was passed for the erection of a soldiers' and sailors' orphans home at Xenia, Ohio, where thousands of children of veterans have been educated, many of whom are now prominent and useful citizens of this and other states of the union.

A law providing for the relief of soldiers and their families who are in needy circumstances, known as the soldiers' relief fund, and relief is furnished to thousands of families every year.

A law authorizing the commissioners to levy a tax for the erection of a soldiers' monument in every county of the state.

The last legislature of Ohio also passed a law providing for the admission of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the State Soldiers' Home.

A law providing for the admission of the children of soldiers of the Spanish-American war to the Soldiers' and Sailors' Orphan Home at Xenia, Ohio.

A law providing for the erection of a monument at Andersonville National cemetery, Georgia, in memory of the Ohio soldiers who died in that prison during the war of the rebellion.

Another law providing for the enumeration by the township assessors of the soldiers of all wars who now reside in Ohio, giving their company and regiment and their postoffice address. This roster which is now on file in the adjutant general's office, will be of great benefit to soldiers in getting evidence in their pension claims.

It is not only to the interest of every soldier that we should elect a Republican president, but that the ex-soldiers should all be "lined up" for the whole Republican ticket. The Republican party has been the true and consistent friend of the soldier from 1861 to the present time and under all circumstances.

JONES AND RICE FAILED TO APPEAR

People Who Attended the Democratic Meeting Didn't Get to See the Celebrated

GOLDEN RULE SAM JONES

Three Speeches Were Made but the Enthusiasm Was All on the Outside.

A FAIR CROWD WAS PRESENT.

A good sized audience largely composed of Republicans and Prohibitionists assembled at the opera house last night out of curiosity to see Golden Rule Sam Jones, of Toledo, and ex-Mayor James A. Rice, of Canton.

They were disappointed however, as the Democrats kept that promise like they keep all others, and neither Jones or Rice were present.

Those of the audience who knew the speakers had not arrived went home, while the balance remained in blissful ignorance and waited and waited.

Hon. G. P. Ikert introduced W. G. Brown, of Detroit, who was advertised to speak on the "Duties of Trades Unions and Workingmen." The workmen who heard that speech would have a hard time finding a head or tail to it. It consisted principally of an attempt to make votes against Hon. R. W. Taylor.

Then came T. J. McNamara, of Youngstown, and he launched forth upon the Pacific ocean and stopped at the Philippine islands. What he knew about the Philippine islands would have put Aguinaldo to shame.

Hon. A. J. Woolf, of Youngstown, was the next on the program. He spoke for an hour and included in his speech free silver, trusts, imperialism and every other issue he could think of.

The meeting was devoid of enthusiasm, although the few Democrats present tried hard to make some.

FROM THE UNIVERSITY.

Miss Sara Swaney Writes Another Very Interesting Letter to the News Review.

Ohio State University,
Oct. 30, 1900.

To the Editor of the News Review.

Since the railroad companies have decided to grant a reduced rate of one fare, round trip ticket, to all voters, the majority of the Ohio State University students are as one man in their intention to go home for the election.

Among the Ohio State University people who will leave Saturday for East Liverpool are James McGarry and George Whittaker.

The daily chapel exercises of 10 minutes' length, which have been the rule in the Ohio State University for years past, have been superseded by a weekly convocation which occupies a full hour. Wednesday morning at 10 o'clock is the hour for these services, the character of which is varied from week to week, with the view of keeping them always interesting.

President Thompson usually addresses the students, and his last discussion was to have been "Political Parties in a Democracy," but in view of the recent death of Hon. John Sherman he devoted the hour to a review of the life and public works of John Sherman.

Browning and Alcyone literary societies held a joint meeting Friday evening in Alcyone hall. A literary and musical program was rendered, after which the evening was spent in dancing.

GENERAL FRANZ SIGEL,

THE HEROIC OLD VETERAN

Speaks to His German Fellow-Citizens, His Comrades
of the Army of the Republic, and the Sons of Veterans.

Fellow Citizens—The day of the national election is near. You have to deposit your votes—a sacred act, because it should be the expression of your conscience, the verification of your patriotism, and of your courage as men, as citizens and as soldiers. If it were only the silver question about which you want to decide, you might hesitate for want of thoroughly understanding its bearing on the financial affairs of the country; but so much you know, that the 16 to 1 scheme involves—I would not say a lie—but a false proposition, which, as honest men, you cannot and will not approve.

But beside this, there are other questions you have to consider, as important and even more so, than the demand for the unlimited coinage of silver. The demand of the silverites tends to a financial revolution, repudiation and ruin; that of the Populistic extremists and anarchists to the subversion of social order, a war of masses against classes and the possession of wealth. They strike against the very foundation of the American republic, denying the right of man to enjoy the fruits of his labor and the acquisition of wealth by his genius or talent, by his industry and perseverance. They would like to see the American people ruled by State Landlordism and State Monopolism and by an army of "State Superintendents," their myrmidons, catch polls and spies. What do they care about the great sacrifices of the war for the restoration of the union? What do they care about the late conflict with Spain, provoked by that nation? Or about the great results gained by the patriotism, bravery and the losses of our army and navy in the field? What do they care about the depreciation of the pensions, on which the veterans and their families or their widows and orphans depend for the rest of their days? What do the silverites, Populists and Anarchists care about the supreme court, the arbiter in interstate troubles and litigations, political and civil? What will become of the independence and impartiality of the court when its members will be debased to mere servants of the majority of congress, and tools of partisanism and a subservient president? Where then is any guarantee against internal strife, secession, war and disintegration? Whether native born or adopted, Republicans or Democrats, politically you are nothing else but Americans.

The American republic is your country and that of your children and your children's children. Stand firm on the basis of the constitution, the laws and institutions of the land which you defended, and will defend, and do not submit to the eccentric demands and agitations of its open or secret enemies, like Carl Schurz and his few misguided followers.

Let McKinley and Roosevelt be your leaders! You, Sons of Veterans, are the descendants of patriotic and brave men! You have inherited their names, inscribed on the rolls of honor, many of them made famous by their deeds of valor and high positions gained. Many of you were in the thick of battle, the anguish, sorrows, privations of your mothers, who grew up, perhaps, in want, but all of you participated in what was gained and preserved by the patriotic and self-sacrificing army of Republicans and Democrats, now dead or living. We are now in this crisis and neither by indifference or negligence you will be prevented from assisting us in maintaining what your fathers gained and what is your greatest inheritance; the unity and safety, the power and prosperity of the American republic.

Sincerely your comrade and friend,
F. SIGEL,
Late Maj. Gen. of Vols.

The students in psychology visited the State hospital for the insane Saturday. The different phases of insanity offer valuable opportunities for the study of mental conditions.

The foot ball game played last Saturday on home grounds, was a hopeless defeat for Oberlin. The visitors were plainly outclassed by the home team, who showed themselves to be in fine physical condition and who played a strictly offensive game. The only thing which marred the game was the unfair decisions of the umpire, Charles Young, of Wesleyan. His ruling out of certain university plays with the attempt to aid Oberlin, was so visibly unjust that some of the Oberlin players themselves were compelled to blush for him.

If the residents of Columbus were not yet familiar with the score (17 to 0) and with the "Wahoo! Wahoo! Rip-rip, Bazoo! I yell, I yell, O. S. U." last Saturday they certainly became so by midnight.

OLD SOLDIERS, READ THIS

The efforts of the Democratic party to drag the pension question into politics is one phase of the campaign. That the Democratic party has been the relentless enemy of the ex-union soldier, and that it has stubbornly fought every effort to enact liberal pension laws, are facts revealed by a careful examination of the "Congressional Record" on 14 important pension measures introduced since the civil war, and voted on by congress:

Republicans for the bills... 1,068

Republicans against the bills... None

Democrats for the bills... 417

Democrats against the bills... 648

A Democrat president, during his two administrations, vetoed 524 pension bills. Presidents
Lincoln, Hayes, Garfield, Arthur,
Harrison and McKinley never refused their signature to a single pension bill. President Grant withheld his signature only five times during his administration.
The last Democratic administration instituted a board of revision to revise the allowance of pensions under President Harrison's administration. During the two years of the existence of this board, 8,694 pensioners were dropped from the rolls, and 23,702 pensions were reduced. A large proportion of the pensioners have been restored to the rolls, under the administration of President McKinley. The record shows the action of the Republican party on all pension legislation to have been along the most generous lines.

BRYAN ON GOLD STANDARD.

"If there is any one who believes the gold standard is a good thing, or that it must be maintained, I warn him not to cast his vote for me, because I promise him it will not be maintained in this country longer than I am able to get rid of it."

This language was used by Hon. William Jennings Bryan in a speech at Knoxville, Tenn., on September 16, 1896.

MAJOR GENERAL SIGEL.

Read the article in today's issue from the pen of that gallant German-American soldier, Major General Franz Sigel. He will tell you, in plain terms, the cause of his faith in the great Republican party, and ask you to vote for McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole Republican ticket.

THOMAS E. MURPHY.

Thomas E. Murphy had a splendid audience of voters in his presence last night. He spoke under difficulties, as the noise of cheering, tin horns and a drum corps made it almost impossible, at times, for his hearers to catch his words. He bore the interruptions patiently, like a little man, winning the hearts of his hearers with side witticisms and pithy interpolations, to suit the occasion. He caught his audience in great shape, as was best evidenced by the hearty outbursts of applause. Mr. Murphy is a favorite in this section, and he added to his popularity last night.

COWARDLY CROKER.

And now Richard Croker whines and shows the yellow streak that exists in the heart and life of every tough and blackguard in existence. He berates and blames his parasitic followers because they are unable to deliver the goods, in the shape of votes, that he fondly imagined could be controlled by money and the promise of permitting the dives and dens and hell holes of New York to run at their own sweet will, in defiance of all law and order. The outlook is that New York state will give the Republican ticket over 100,000 of a majority. That same old coon. Let the eagle scream.

THE SOLDIER BOYS.

Every soldier, old and young, of the civil war or of the Spanish-American or Philippine war, should read every word on our first page today respecting the treatment of our soldier boys and along the line of pension work. Democracy has always been against the soldier, while Republicanism has always been in favor of him. Every Republican president, with the exception of Grant, has a clean record in favor of pensioners, and he took the stand against but five pensions, while Grover Cleveland blocked the boys in blue between 500 and 600 times. Where respectfully call the attention of our agents, and the music-loving public in general, to the fact that certain parties are manufacturing and have placed upon the market a cheap piano, bearing a name so similar to our own (with a slight difference in spelling) that the purchaser may be led to believe that he is purchasing a genuine "Sohmer Piano."

We deem it our duty to those who have been favorably impressed with the fine quality and high reputation of the "Sohmer Piano" to warn them against the possibility of an imposition by unscrupulous dealers or agents. the record. It is composed of facts, and no Democrat of common intelligence dare attempt to deny it. All legislation, state or national, in favor of the soldier, has been made by the Republican party.

WHAT DOES IT MEAN.

My Republican friend, have you made note how closely and intimately Prohibitionists affiliate with and cling to Democracy? As a rule, the average Prohibitionist has no use for a Republican or the Republican party. He will admit that Democracy has always been the rum party and the party of drunkenness and debauchery; and admit, further, that the Republican party is the only party, outside of his own organization, which has ever advocated movements along the line of morality and right, and then hate the Republican party with a good and square hatred and nestle right up to Democracy, as was the case at the opera house last night, when the audience was composed largely of Prohibitionists. It looks, to a man up a tree, as if very many of these so-called Prohibitionists are trying to induce Republicans to vote the Prohibition ticket, and they themselves, hot on the surface for John G. Woolley, will quietly vote the straight Bryan ticket. So, have a care, my Republican friend, and vote the ticket straight, McKinley, Roosevelt and the whole ball of wisdom; put your cross mark right under the eagle.

THE NEW YORK SUN.

Republicans who are members of any union or trades organization will do well to note the fact that Typographical union No. 6, New York city, has permitted Democratic members of that organization to make the union a tool for the advancement of Bryan and his followers. Taking sides politically with any party is contrary to the laws of the International Typographical union. The "American Workingman," a strong labor paper of New York city, states that the action against the Republican party, on account of the New York Sun being run by rat, or unfair labor, was engineered by a clique of Democrats in No. 6. Only 400 members were present, 250 voting for the action and 150 against, out of a membership of 6,000. An attempt was made to make an appeal against this unfair and unjust vote, and the constitutional number of signatures was secured to demand an open meeting, but the Democratic president of No. 6 overruled the matter, virtually disfranchising 5,600 voters or members; and, when protest was made against the trickster's decision, he ruled that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Was there ever known, in the history of union organizations, such brazen effrontery and cheek as this fellow assumes? A vote had been taken, right under his nose and censorship and direction, against the Republican party, and yet he unblushingly declared, when it suited his Democratic purpose, that "nothing of a political nature could be entertained." Chairman Hanna, of the National Republican committee, did everything he could to settle the matter, and did get the interested parties together, but nothing could be effected. A great mass of the Allied Printing Trades members of New York city condemn No. 6 for its unprecedented and illegitimate and non-union entrance to the political field, and all Republican unionists will make note of this fact, and vote straight for McKinley, Roosevelt and the entire Republican ticket.

M'ALLISTER AND OTHERS INDICTED

Four Murderers of Miss Bosschietter Held on Charges of Murder and Criminal Assault—The Dead Girl's Stomach Is Being Examined.

Paterson, N. J., Nov. 3.—The audience in Judge Harkalow's court broke into a fit of laughter on the review of the evidence against Joseph Johnson, on trial for criminal assault. The prisoner joined in the laughter, when suddenly the judge ordered him to stand up. He then in a few brief words sentenced Johnson to 10 years in state's prison. Johnson almost fainted, and his wife screamed with terror as he was led away.

Johnson was foreman in a silk mill and his victim was 16 years old.

New York, Nov. 3.—The grand jury at Paterson, N. J., handed up an indictment against Walter C. McAllister, George J. Kerr, William A. Death and Andrew Campbell, who are charged with the murder of Jennie Bosschietter, who was drugged to death on Oct. 18. There were two indictments against each of the young men, one for murder and the other for rape, the first, it is said, also embracing the latter.

It is alleged that in the course of the discussion of the case among the members of the grand jury it was said that Jennie's heart was weak and it was possible that this may have been the cause of death. There was no evidence that chloral was administered, and this point can only be determined by the analysis of the stomach, which is now going on in New York, or by a confession from one of the accused men.

It is said in support of the statement that death may have been due to a weak heart, that on one occasion Jennie, while standing on a street corner, talking to two young men, fell in a faint and remained unconscious for half an hour. The vote on the indictment is said to be unanimous.

It is said it may be needful to accept the confession of Campbell or Death, or both, as witnesses and accept pleas of guilty from them to the crime of rape only. If the chemical analysis is strong enough, the confessions may not be used. Even if the analysis does not establish the administration of the drug, it is said that the state may elect to eliminate that feature of the matter and proceed to trial upon assumption that the violence of the assault caused heart failure and death and that would entail the death penalty as much as the administration of the drug.

NON-UNIONIST BADLY HURT.

Hot Fight Between Strikers and Workers Near Wheeling.

Wheeling, W. Va., Nov. 3.—The strike at the Riverside works of the National Tube company developed into a riot that will result in the death of at least one of the participants. A pitched battle was fought by the strikers and the men who have taken their places. Shots were exchanged and missiles of every description were used in the attack and resistance. Walter Davis, one of the non-union men, was dangerously injured. The back of his head was crushed with some heavy missile. He will die. More trouble is anticipated. The strike is not a question of wages, but a demand that the employers recognize the union.

GOULDS PAY COUNT'S DEBTS.

The Family's Millions Have Nearly Doubled Since the Father's Death.

New York, Nov. 3.—On the authority of an "intimate friend of the late Jay Gould," the Evening World announced that the debts of Count Boni de Castellane will probably be paid in full by the Goulds at once, amounting to $4,700,000.

The Gould millions have nearly doubled since Jay Gould's death, and Ana's share is nearly $18,000,000, and her income nearer $1,000,000 than $600,000, as heretofore stated. The total value of the Gould estate is now over $125,000,000.

WAS M'KINLEY NIGHT.

Mr. Murphy is no stranger in East Liverpool and in beginning his address said he had taken a walk during the day and was surprised at the progress made since his last visit here. He judged from the amount of building going on in the city and the way the town was spreading out that the people of East Liverpool were in favor of expansion.

The speaker paid a glowing tribute to Abraham Lincoln in his stand upon the slavery question, showing how similar was the position of Democracy today to that of 1864. Everything was unconstitutional then and they proposed to stop the war against rebellion. The howl of imperialism is a full brother to the copperhead trash we heard at that time.

In the course of his remarks the speaker made a comparison which made a great hit. He said Bryan reminded him of the Platte river, which though 2,000 miles long, was widest at the mouth and only two inches deep.

In closing the gentleman urged all Republicans to go to the polls next Tuesday and so vote that the standard of intelligence and patriotism of the people might not be lowered by the copperhead principles of Democracy.

EAST END.

Had a Good Turnout.

The Fifth ward undoubtedly deserves the credit for turning out the largest delegation in the demonstration last night. No less than 40 horsemen from this section were in line. John Searight, one of the number, had an experience at the corner of Fifth and Washington, which neither he or the other fellow will soon forget. He wore a huge yellow sash and this was grabbed by some one, who almost succeeded in dragging Searight from the saddle. He handed the reins to another horseman and climbing to the ground proceeded to punch the fresh individual until he was glad to get away. The occurrence did not interfere with the procession in the least.

Look Out for Them.

The people of the city are warned to be on their guard against a few unscrupulous Prohibitionists who are working a very clever scheme to cut down the usual Republican majority. The plan is this: They will go to a recognized Republican and say there is a Prohibitionist in another part of the city who would like to pair with him, and stay away from the polls on election day. Now they take good care that the men are not acquainted, nor have no knowledge of the other's political belief. Now it happened that both men were Republicans and that if the plan works two Republicans will be prevented from casting their vote for the candidate of their choice.

Didn't Get the Horses.

The residents of Chaffinville do not stand well with the Republicans of East End today. The claim is made that Chaffin himself had promised his horses to several parties, but when they went for them they were refused. As a result much inconvenience was experienced in securing other animals.

SOUTH SIDE.

Large Sized Row.

A large sized row occurred in the upper part of Chester Thursday night near a shanty inhabited by a number of colored people.

A man named Steel, who is employed on the Liverpool side of the river by Contractor McLaughlin, has been making himself exceedingly obnoxious to the female inhabitants of the community for several weeks. On the night in question the Chester people determined to put a stop to it and a fight was the result, in which Steel drew a revolver, a razor and several other implements of war, which were promptly taken from him. When he got clear of his assailants he was badly used up, and it is hardly likely he will venture to this side of the river very soon. The Chester colored people are said to have armed themselves and to have made the statement that if he makes his appearance in that vicinity again they will not hesitate to kill him.

Col. Winship Wigwam, Monday.

Notes of Southside.

Miss Nannie and Blanch Damon were guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. James Gibson today. They returned to their home in Cumberland this afternoon.

Dales Jackson came to Chester today to meet his wife, who has been visiting relatives in Irondale for some time.

Cal Webb, of Fairview, is visiting friends in Chester today.

Thomas Oaks is today engaged in excavating for some improvements at the new residence of Samuel Allison.

L. S. Bambrick, wife and two children are the guests of Chester friends today.

Col. Winship Wigwam, Monday.

Will Receive Returns.

Arrangements have been made by the Chester Republicans to have a special wire run in at Rock Springs and the returns on election night will be received there.

Seriously Ill.

William Goppert, who resides with his mother in the lower end of town, is very ill, suffering with malarial fever.

Went to Wheeling.

C. T. McCutcheon, the druggist, left this afternoon for Wheeling, where he will visit relatives over Sunday.

A FIGHT.

Sam Shaffer and Charles Rappo engaged in a fight in front of the opera house last night and when Special Officer Stafford appeared on the scene were doing a good turn. They were placed under arrest and taken to city hall in the patrol.

When they faced the mayor this morning, Shaffer, who was the aggressor, was fined $9.60 and Rappo $6.60. They were released.

THE CHELSEA.

Statement Made That It Will Start Up if McKinley is Elected.

Toronto Tribune.

We learned yesterday that the big Chelsea China company had leased its pottery to East Liverpool parties in which Hugh McNicol and Charley Smith figured very prominently. A lease of five years with a purchase privilege was secured. The papers have all been taken out and are now ready for the final touch, but if McKinley is not elected the deal is off. If he is, then some up-to-date machinery is to be put in, including a new dynamo for their own electric light and several additions, which will make the Chelsea one of the most complete plants in the valley. They say they will operate it to its fullest capacity, and if it is it means employment for 300 people.

George Clayton, who was here, gave out the information as we give it to the public.

UNTOLD VALUE.

The Statement Contained in This Citizen's Statement is Priceless.

The hale, the hearty, the strong can afford to toss this paper to one side impatiently when they read the following, but any sufferer in East Liverpool who has spent a mint of money and suffered hours of excruciating torture caused by kidney complaint will stand in his own light if he does not follow the valuable advice offered by Mr. S. C. Hill, of Ester, Pa., carpenter, who says: "For a year I suffered from pain across my back, difficulty with the kidney secretions and was naturally anxious to procure some treatment which would check if not radically cure the trouble. Advised by a friend, I procured Doan's Kidney Pills at the W. & W. pharmacy, and I want East Liverpool people to thoroughly grasp this fact, before I used the entire contents of the box I was cured. To prove that my convictions were laid on solid foundation I have since purchased for a neighbor of mine three boxes of Doan's Kidney Pills. They cured him. Now, when a preparation which cured me in the condition I was in, and also my neighbor, a preparation which is held in such estimation in and around East Liverpool that an acquaintance of mine advised me through a newspaper statement to obtain it, when that preparation performs exactly what it promises, what can be expected of any resident of East Liverpool suffering from kidney complaint who will not take advantage of his neighbor's experience and profit by his opinions."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, N. Y., sole agents for the U. S.

SOUND MONEY PARADE

Republican Demonstration In New York.

WERE ABOUT 140,000 MEN IN LINE.

Governor Roosevelt Rode at the Head and Later Reviewed the Marchers—Mrs. Roosevelt and Others Also on the Reviewing Stand.

New York, Nov. 3.—Thousands marched in the Republican Sound Money parade here today. Probably 140,000 men were in line.

The parade started from Worth street and Broadway about 10 o'clock. It was led by a platoon of mounted police. Behind the police platoon came Governor Roosevelt in a carriage, surrounded by members of the executive committee. Next was General McCook and staff, leading the parade proper. The place of honor was accorded to the Wholesale Dry Goods Men's Republican club, which had about 35,000 men in line. The bankers and brokers' division, 10,000 strong, followed the dry goods men.

General Molineux was grand marshal of the drug, paint and oil division, and his sons, Leslie and Cecil, acted as his staff officers.

A feature of the parade was the banners and bannerettes which were carried. Many unique designs had been devised, and they lent the necessary color and picturesqueness to make the parade attractive and interesting throughout.

The march was through Broadway to Waverley place, then through the Washington arch and up Fifth avenue to Fortieth street. Governor Roosevelt reviewed the parade from the stand just above the Dewey arch on the right hand side of the street. When the parade reached Madison square it was halted just long enough to allow the governor to take his place on the stand. Mrs. Roosevelt and her children had seats on the reviewing stand near the governor. Among the distinguished men who occupied places on the reviewing stand were Lieutenant Governor Woodruff, Benjamin B. Odell, ex-Mayor Abram S. Hewitt, Cornelius N. Bliss, Joseph H. Manley, Senator Scott, Franklin Murphy, John Proctor Clarke, General Francis V. Greene, General John H. Brooke, John A. McCall, Charles A. Schieren, Colonel A. S. Mills, Oscar S. Straus and Frederick S. Gibbs.

When the parade had passed the reviewing stand it continued up to Fortieth street and Fifth avenue in strict formation and at that point the disbandment began.

KNOW NO CLASS DISTINCTION.

President Writes a Letter, Being Unable to Review Parade.

New York, Nov. 3.—The following letter was given out by Secretary Drake, of the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money Association: "Canton, O., Nov. 1, 1900.

"My Dear Mr. Strong—Public duty will not permit me to accept the invitation to review the parade of Nov. 3 of the organization composing the Business Men's Republican and Sound Money association. I recall the inspiring demonstration of four years ago, and rejoice that now, as then, with undiminished ranks, citizens of all parties are in line for national honor, public law, sound currency and industrial prosperity, and, as in 1896, are arrayed against those who are nefarious class hatred and discontent among the people of our happy country.

"We know no class distinctions in this fair land of ours. The American people will permit no stain to be put upon the American name.

"May those marching freemen and their patriotic allies throughout the country stamp out for all time in this republic the evils of repudiation and dishonor.

"Very sincerely yours,
"WILLIAM M'KINLEY.
Honorable William L. Strong, President Business Men's Republican Sound Money Association, New York."

BRYAN'S CHICAGO TOUR.

Addressed Larger Crowds, on Second Day—Auditors Threatened to Lynch a Questioner.

Chicago, Nov. 3.—William Jennings Bryan's program in Chicago the second day comprehended 12 speeches. The crowds that greeted him were greater than those at the meetings of Thursday and Thursday night. The candidate began his itinerary at Handel nad, in the downtown business district, going from there to the public library, where he spoke to an outdoor gathering of workmen. After luncheon he made two addresses in "Old Vienna" pavilion, at Sixtieth street and Cottage Grove avenue, one to the crowd in the building and the other to the throng that was unable to gain admittance. Here was the only semblance of disturbance manifested during the day. Two men in the audience asked, almost simultaneously, "How about North Carolina?" and Mr. Bryan was replying, when one of the questioners insisted on asking a question concerning trusts, whereupon the crowd demanded that he be thrown out and threatened to lynch him. Mr. Bryan insisted upon answering, however, but could not do so for some time owing to the uproar made by the crowd in expressing its resentment toward the inquisitor. The latter was saved from violence only by police interference.

Mr. Bryan's night meetings were held on the North, West, Southwest and South Sides of the city, the closing speech being made at midnight at State and Thirty-first streets.

EIGHT REPORTED MISSING.

Authorities Hunting for the Bookkeeper of Tarrant & Co.—Think He Knows of Explosives.

New York, Nov. 3.—The revised list of persons reported missing in connection with the Tarrant fire shows eight persons reported missing and not accounted for. Of these six are not known at the address given by the persons who reported them missing.

On the list is the name of Benjamin Moorhouse, a clerk for Tarrant & Co. The authorities persist in declaring their belief that he is alive and purposely keeping his whereabouts secret.

"We have detectives out after Moorhouse and expect to land him soon," said Assistant District Attorney Walsh.

Moorhouse's family and neighbors at Mount Clair, N. J., are convinced that he perished in the disaster.

The fire department's investigation of the explosion closed after the testimony of Louis Patterson and George Thompson, employees of Tarrant & Co., had been taken.

Thompson is bookkeeper for the firm, but he showed an ignorance of what was in storage in the upper floors and no important evidence was drawn from him. He said Moorhouse, the missing clerk, was the only man that knew just what material was in the building.

Dr. Lederle, health department analyst, who examined the seven drums found in the ruins, said that they had contained aniline oil, which is only a little less explosive than kerosene.

ALVORD LET GO AND REARRESTED.

His Bail Fixed at $150,000 For a Hearing Before U. S. Commissioner.

New York, Nov. 3.—City Magistrate Flammer discharged Cornelius L. Alvord, the defendant note teller of the First National bank, from custody. The magistrate said he was satisfied that he had no jurisdiction in the case. Alvord was allowed to leave the court room, but as soon as he reached the corridor he was rearrested by a United States marshal and taken before United States Commissioner Shields, accompanied by his counsel, Jacob F. Miller, and appeared to be very nervous as he faced the crowd which packed the commissioner's room. General Burnett, the United States district attorney, and his assistant, Mr. Baldwin, were present to represent the government. The prisoner, through his counsel, demanded an examination, which was set down for next Wednesday at 2 o'clock.

Commissioner Shields fixed bail at $150,000, and in the absence of bondsmen Alvord was delivered over to the possession of United States Marshal Henkel and taken to the Ludlow street jail.

MAKING SAMPLE GOOD ROAD.

Hundreds Interested In Perfecting Thoronghfares Near Canonsburg, Pa.

Canonsburg, Pa., Nov. 3.—There are about 500 men inspecting the sample road making out in North Strabane township, and nearly 300 took dinner at the old Hill church, ladies serving it, the proceeds to go to the good roads fund. All stages of the making of macadam stone road were open for inspection and the interest was great. Julius Lemoyne, of Washington, and W. A. McBride, of Strabane, gave pertinent talks, the burden of both being a plea for better roads.

M. O. Eldridge, under whose direction the road is being built, gave an illustrated address on good roads and how to make them. The day was fine. About 15 men, including eight from jail, are employed on the new road.

THE CRUEL EMPRESS.

Had Kwang-Su's Favorite Wife Drowned.

OFFICIALS SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Five Found Guilty at Pao Ting Fu of Participation in Murders of Missionaries—Empress Likely to Be Barred From Any Part in Governing China.

Berlin, Nov. 3.—Official telegrams from Count Von Waldersee show that all the German troops have arrived in China and been distributed.

A special dispatch to the Hamburg Correspondent says:

"In a well situated in the imperial palace precincts in Peking was found the body of Emperor Kwang Su's favorite wife, Shen Ti, whom the empress dowager caused to be drowned before the flight of the court from the capital. The second favorite, Shing Fi, and a hundred ladies belonging to the imperial harem are prisoners in the hands of the allies."

A dispatch from Pao Ting Fu, dated Thursday, says:

"Telegraphic connection has been completed with Peking, entirely by the Germans. The railway from Pao Ting Fu to the capital is nearly completed. French detachments are guarding the line. The health of the German troops is steadily improving."

Another batch of letters from soldiers in China appears in a number of papers, among them the Hanover Courier, which editorially demands official statements with reference to the details given by the writers of the cruelties alleged to have been committed by German troops in China. This demand is warmly supported by the Freisinnige Zeitung.

TO PROVIDE FOR INDEMNITY.

Chinese Revenue May Be Increased. Other Points to Settle.

Washington, Nov. 3.—It was stated in quarters well versed in Chinese affairs that outside of the question of indemnity, punishment, etc., now under negotiation at Peking, there are three vital and far-reaching questions to be determined, viz., first, the removal of the empress dowager, personally and through the influence of her advisors, from all participation in the Chinese movement, as they are to blame for the Boxer outrages, but no personal punishment of the woman is intended; second, the creation of an indemnity fund by the increase of China's customs revenue, either by the payment of the duties in gold, instead of depreciated silver, as at present, or else by doubling the present silver duties from 5 per cent to 10 per cent ad valorem, so that indemnities can be paid the powers; and, third, the establishment of a minister of foreign affairs, in place of the old and cumbersome system of the Tsung Li Yamen.

Foreign representatives have found it very difficult to deal with this mixed body, and to locate responsibility upon it, particularly during the Boxer troubles.

CHINESE SENTENCED TO DEATH.

Accused of Being Connected With Murders of Missionaries.

Pao Ting Fu, Nov. 3.—The commission of inquiry into the outrages on missionaries here has sentenced to death Tien Yang, the provincial judge; Wang Shung-on, the military commandant; General Kiu and two other officials.

THEOLOGICAL Y. M. C. A. S.

Conference Met in Allegheny City and Opened With Prayer.

Pittsburg, Nov. 3.—The first business session of the triennial conference of the Young Men's Christian Association belonging to the theological seminaries in the United States and Canada opened with a prayer meeting at the Western Theological seminary, in Allegheny. Formal business was taken up by the delegates in the Fourth Presbyterian church, at Arch street and Montgomery avenue, Allegheny, afterward.

The first feature was an address by Bishop J. M. Thoburn, of India. This was followed by addresses by the Rev. C. Armand Miller, of New York; Prof. Dyson Hague, of Wickliffe college, and President H. C. Weston, of Crozier Theological seminary.

Later there was a discussion as to the best method of furthering the work in seminaries. The discussion was led by Prof. Earl Taylor, of Chicago, and was followed by the Rev. Cecil Owen, of London, Canada. Addresses were made last evening by Robert E. Speer, secretary of the Presbyterian board of foreign missions, of New York, and the Rev. William F. McDowell, secretary of the board of education of the Methodist Episcopal church, of New York.

The Rev. W. Merle Smith, of the Central Presbyterian church, New York City, also spoke.

WILLIAM L. STRONG DEAD.

Ex-Mayor of New York Expired Suddenly. Born in Ohio—President Sent Telegram of Condolence.

New York, Nov. 3.—William L. Strong, the last mayor of the old city of New York, died suddenly at his residence in this city.

Mr. Strong took an active part in the present campaign, and it is said that his political labors combined with his attempts to regain supervision over his business affairs, in the face of impaired health, brought about the illness that resulted in his death.

William L. Strong was born in Ohio in 1821 and came to New York when a young man. He found employment with different firms until Jan. 1, 1870, when he organized the firm of William L. Strong & Co. The firm soon grew to be one of the prominent business houses in the city. He also interested himself in banking matters, and was president of the Central National bank.

At the time of his death Mr. Strong was a member of a number of societies, including the Ohio society, American Fine Arts society, American Museum of Natural History, Metropolitan Museum association and American Geographical society.

Canton, O., Nov. 3.—On hearing of the death of ex-Mayor Strong, President McKinley sent a telegram of condolence.

ROOSEVELT BROKE RECORD.

Made the Longest Campaign of Any Known Candidate—Finished His Tour in New York.

Owego, N. Y., Nov. 3.—Theodore Roosevelt, Republican candidate for Vice President, completed last night at this point one of the most remarkable campaigns ever made by a candidate of any party in the United States. In eight weeks he has visited 24 states of the union, made 673 speeches, traveled 21,209 miles, visited 567 towns and cities and talked to what is estimated to be 3,000,000 people. This record includes more speeches, more miles traveled and more territory covered than that of all the other candidates for President or Vice President of the United States of all parties for the last 100 years, with the exception of the record made by William J. Bryan in 1896, and it exceeds Mr. Bryan's record, which was 599 speeches made and 19,000 miles covered. This wonderful campaign was finished by a two weeks' tour of the state of New York, during which the candidate traveled 2,253 miles through 37 counties and made 120 speeches, the majority of them from the rear platform of the train. Mr. Roosevelt finished this tour in excellent health and good spirits, and, as he said last night: "With a slightly weakened voice, but able to go on with the campaign a couple of weeks more."

The last day of this campaign included eight stops between Jamestown, in Chautauqua county, and inclusive of Owego, in Tioga county. The stops varied from two hours in duration at Olean to 10 minutes at other points. He finished at Owego, the home of United States Senator Thomas C. Platt.

Below are given brief biographies of the five Republican candidates on the Ohio state ticket this year. All, except Mr. Laylin, the head of the ticket, are candidates for re-election:

Secretary of State.

Hon. Lewis C. Laylin, Republican candidate for secretary of state, was born in Norwalk, Huron county. He graduated from that city's high school in 1867. Two years later he was elected to the superintendency of the Bellevue public schools, which position he held for six years. He began the study of the law, and was admitted to the bar in 1876. He was city clerk of Norwalk for two years; member of the Huron county board of school examiners for 12 years, and president of the Norwalk city board of examiners three years. In 1879 he was elected prosecuting attorney of Huron county, which position he held for seven years. His legislative experience began in 1887, when he was elected to the house. In 1889 he was re-elected. He was the choice of his Republican colleagues for the speakership, and received the unanimous support of the Republican minority. In 1891 he received his third nomination as representative, the honor being given unanimously. In the organization of the house there was an exciting contest for the speakership between Mr. Laylin and Hon. J. F. McGrew of Clark county, which Mr. Laylin won. He made an admirable presiding officer, as was to have been expected of a man of his ability, tact and discretion. Mr. Laylin is a typical representative, in brains and loyalty to party and country, and in high character, of the intelligent freemen who have made the Western Reserve noted in the politics of Ohio and the nation.

The Supreme Bench.

The present chief justice of the supreme court of Ohio, Hon. John A. Shauck, is a candidate for re-election, and will undoubtedly receive this deserved endorsement. Judge Shauck spent his childhood on a farm in Richland county; was a student at Otterbein university when the civil war began. He enlisted in the One Hundred and Thirty-sixth Ohio volunteer infantry, serving with honor in the Army of the Potomac. He then studied law at the University of Michigan, Ann

HON. JOHN A. SHAUCK.

Candidate for Supreme Judge, Arbor, and began practice in Kansas City. Later he returned to Ohio and entered into partnership with Judge Boltin at Dayton. He was elected judge of the Sixth judicial circuit in 1888, his associate being Hon. Marshall J. Williams. Hon. Gilbert H. Stewart. In 1890 he was re-elected for a term of six years. He was elevated to the supreme bench in 1894. His mind is essentially judicial, clear, incisive, analytical, and to perceive and grasp the salient and controlling points of a case. His decisions are models of conciseness, clarity and force, and are accepted with unanimity.

State School Commissioner.

Hon. Lewis C. Bonebrake is the Republican candidate for state school commissioner, he receiving the honor of an unanimous renomination at the

HON. L. D. BONEBRAKE.

Candidate for State School Commissioner. Hands of the state convention. Mr. Bonebrake is himself a product of the Ohio common schools, and has long been recognized as one of the leading educators of the state. He was born in Blendon township, Franklin county, Aug. 23, 1859. His early education was obtained in a district school, and through his own efforts he supplemented this by a college course, graduating at Otterbein university, Westerville, in 1882. He at once took up school work, and successfully superintended the public schools of Sparta, Elmore, Athens and Mt. Vernon. He was serving his ninth year in the latter city when he was nominated and elected commissioner in 1897. He has been a most energetic and efficient official. During the two years and three months he has been in office he has made over three hundred official visits throughout Ohio, and has delivered educational addresses in every county of the state. He has also thoroughly revised the official blanks used in the commissioner's office, for which he received a formal vote of thanks from the association of county auditors of Ohio. His system of blanks is so excellent that it has been adopted by the United States government for use in the schools of Porto Rico, Cuba and the Philippines. The importance of the system may be recognized from the fact that $14,000,000 are expended for the public schools in the state of Ohio every year, and the best interests of the public can be conserved by the re-election of the present efficient commissioner.

Dairy Commissioner.

Hon. Joseph E. Blackburn, candidate for re-election as dairy and food commissioner, was born in Belmont county June 30, 1860. After a common school course, he went to work in the Belmont glass works. Here he rose step by step until he became foreman of the factory. He was active in organizing the Moldmakers' union, and he later succeeded in securing the admission of this union into the American Flint Glass Workers' union. He then took a course in pharmacy at Ohio Normal university, Ada, receiving his degree of Ph. G. In 1887 he embarked in the HON. J. D. BLACKBURN.

Candidate for Food Commissioner. drug business. His first public office was that of representative in the general assembly in 1895. The next year he received the nomination for the office of dairy and food commissioner, and was elected. The strong fight that he made against the sale of low grade, adulterated sugars and food stuffs attracted much attention and made him the focus of the assaults of all interested in these adulterations. He was elected for a second term in 1898, and has carried forward the reforms he inaugurated without faltering. He has insisted that dealers shall sell goods for what they are, and has waged relentless war on those who attempted to cheat and deceive. He now comes before the people for their endorsement of his course in the matter.

Board of Public Works.

Hon. Charles A. Goddard, Republican candidate for re-election to the board of public works, was born in Norwich, Vt., May 25, 1841. He was reared on a farm and obtained his education in the excellent schools of the Green Mountain state. He served through the civil war as a member of company B, Sixth Vermont volunteers. At the end of the conflict he came to

HON. C. A. GODDARD.

Candidate for Board of Public Works. Ohio and settled down to farm life in Scioto county. Here he served two terms as county commissioner. In September, 1887, Mr. Goddard was appointed superintendent of the Southern division of the Ohio canal. His excellent judgment and his intuitive grasp of details made him a prime favorite with the people along the line of the canal and with all doing business thereon. As a member of the board of public works he has proved a most efficient officer, and his renomination is a deserved tribute to his worth.

EUROPE WANTS BRYAN.

Hoping For His Election to the Presidency.

WE ARE HURTING HER EXPORTS.

Within the Past Four Years the United States Have Taken Enormous Trade From Europe—Bryan's Triumph Would Change This.

The men of affairs in Europe, the men engaged in export trade, the financiers and bankers, are all hoping for the election of Bryan on Nov. 6. So are the workingmen of Europe—those at least who are intelligent enough to understand the drift of events.

While in the diplomatic way the great commercial nations of Europe are on terms of amity with the United States, industrially and commercially they are our enemies.

The reason is plain. The industrial center of the world has shifted westward across the Atlantic to the United States within the past four years. In that time we have developed an enormous export trade in manufactured products. Before that, the bulk of our exports consisted of raw materials—grain and foodstuffs, cotton and petroleum. But the enormous development of our exports in manufactured products within the past four years has injured the commerce of all Europe, and especially of Great Britain, Germany, France and Belgium.

We have, for the first time in our history, become a formidable competitor with them in the world's markets. Their industries and their commerce have, therefore, been injured. Added to this is the fact that, as a result of our unexampled prosperity, the United States has become pientious in money, and has, within four years, become Europe's creditor instead of her debtor.

Consequently European nations hope for the election of Bryan, because they believe his success will change all this. They know he is a supporter of free trade, and hope, if he be elected, that the markets of this country shall be thrown open to the products of their cheap labor. They remember the effect of the Wilson bill on our industries

COAL

Does not warm except through combustion. Food does not nourish except through digestion. You may as well hug a coal pile to get warm as expect to get nourishment out of food which you cannot digest. Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery cures diseases of the stomach and organs of digestion and nutrition. It enables the body to assimilate food and so put on sound flesh and develop strong muscle.

"The praise I would like to give your 'Golden Medical Discovery' I cannot utter in words or describe with pen," writes James B. Ambrose, Esq., of 1205 1/2 Mifflin Street, Huntingdon, Pa. "I was taken down with what our physician said was indigestion. I doctored with the best around here and found no relief. I wrote you and you sent me a question blank to fill out and I did so and you then advised me to use Doctor Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. I took three bottles and I felt so good that I stopped—being as I think, cured. I have no symptoms of gastric trouble or indigestion now."

Dr. Pierce's Common Sense Medical Adviser is sent free on receipt of stamps to pay cost of mailing only. Send 21 one-cent stamps for paper or 31 stamps for cloth binding, to Dr. R. V. Pierce, Buffalo, N. Y.

and our export trade, and they desire a repetition of it. Should Bryan win, they hope to regain the trade they have lost to us.

In addition to this European financiers hope for his election, because they know that he would force silver payments of obligations. The men who owe the millions of money borrowed in the United States within the past four years would like nothing better than to repay in silver the debts contracted on a gold basis, thus saving 50 per cent of their obligations.

These facts are certified to by Hon. Edward D. Winslow, the United States consul general at Stockholm, Sweden, who has just returned to America for a brief visit. He is fully convinced, from personal observation, that the above statements are absolute facts. Europe desires Bryan's election because it will be a detriment to American industry and commerce, and work to European interests. The voters of the United States, especially the workingmen, should consider this point very carefully.

The factory whistles too derision at Bryanism every morning.

A vote for Bryan is a vote to reopen the free soup-houses.

BUSINESS HELD BACK.

Longing For Free Field to Leap Forward—Encouraging Signs In Iron Business.

New York, Nov. 3.—R. G. Dun & Co.'s Weekly Review of Trade, issued today, says in part:

The period of suspense is nearly over. Business has been longing for a free field in which to leap forward, but restricted buying largely to wants for immediate consumption. Some evidence appears of willingness to take speculative chances in the movement of a few standard goods, notably of iron and steel. The actual resumption of operations in the anthracite coal fields has added largely to the working force and closing down of a few small steel plants is only in the nature of concentrating operations at more advantageous points and has not much reduced the number of men employed. The weather in some sections has favored business, but at New York has been unseasonable, accounting for much of the loss of 15.3 per cent in bank clearings here as compared with last year, though the week shows a gain of 20.3 per cent over 1898.

Encouraging signs multiply in the iron industry. Strength in Bessemer and grey forge at Pittsburg shows that the recent increase in activity of finished forms has at last effected the market for raw material. Improvement in domestic over a year ago, while the increase in agricultural products was only 9.5 per cent, this later increase being entirely due to higher prices of cotton as compared with last year. The outlook is for an aggregate export of manufactured goods this year of at least $440,000,000, a total never heretofore approached. A curious feature is that most of that increase in import trade for the nine months is in products designed to be used by American manufacturers, so the anomaly is presented of American manufacturers being the largest importers of foreign products.

Wheat, including flour, shipments for the week aggregate 3,612,421 bushels, against 4,932,978 last week, 3,046,856 in the corresponding week of 1899; 6,773,643 in 1898; 5,590,498 in 1897, and 3,472,979 in 1896. From July 1 to date this season wheat exports are 63,856,564 bushels, against 72,589,016 last season, and 73,845,523 in 1898-99. Corn exports for the week aggregate 3,920,110, against 3,365,651 last week; 4,503,425 in this week a year ago; 3,566,640 in 1898; 2,199,556 in 1897 and 2,247,643 in 1896.

Failures for the week in the United States number 165, as against 161 last week; 174 in this week a year ago; 183 in 1898 and 223 in 1897 and 1896. Canadian failures number 16 against 31 last week, 21 in 1899, 32 in 1898, 34 in 1897 and 50 in 1896.

A DAY IN WALL STREET.

Developments In Money Market Justified Precautionary Attitude of Some.

New York, Nov. 3.—The developments in the money market Friday served fully to justify the precautionary attitude assumed by influential interests toward the speculation during the present week. Had the borrowing with which to hold stocks on margin proceeded this week with the headlong eagerness that was shown last week, the effect of Friday's flurry in call loans inevitably would have been much aggravated. The hardships of borrowers were increased by the additional strictness of lenders with regard to collateral, the rate being 1 per cent higher for loans where there was admixture of industrial securities than where they were all railroads.

The sub-treasury was debtor at the clearing house Friday to the amount of $2,392,771 on account of government interest payments. The feature of the preliminary estimates of the week's cash changes is the reversal shown in the current of the money movement with the interior. The banks have gained on the interior movement by express to the extent of probably near half a million dollars. Not until Friday, when $200,000 was deposited at the sub-treasury for transfer to Chicago, has there been any transfer to the interior through that medium. As a consequence of this and the large payments by the sub-treasury on account of gold deposits at Pacific coast points, the official statement of this week's treasury operations shows a gain by the banks of $963,600. But it must be remembered that this official statement includes a payment on last Friday of checks to the amount of $3,000,000 for Australian gold deposited with the government at San Francisco.

New York, Nov. 3.—George Washington Freeman, Horner Green, a former negro slave, died in the almshouse at Hempstead, L. I., at the reputed age of 123 years.

I feel that I must say a few words in praise of the Ladies' greatest friend, Wine of Cardui. It is the most wonderful remedy that I ever tried. I have been a sufferer for years, at times being confined to my bed two or three days each month. A friend recommended Wine of Cardui, and since I have taken it I have been greatly relieved. I intend to continue to take it, for I know it is as recommended. I will use every effort to get others to use it.
